'India engaging Russia, Ukraine to find peace'

Highlighting India's unique position, External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar said it is having conversations about ending the conflict with each of the two sides and keeping each apprised of what the other side is saying. He said to end the war, there must be serious negotiations between the two, and these talks aim to initiate that. "We don't believe that a solution is going to come from the battlefield," Jaishankar said during an interaction at an event.

MAHALAKSHMI CASE

Prime suspect hangs self outside home in Odisha

ASISH MEHTA @ Bhubaneswar

IN a bizarre turn of events, Mukti Ranjan Ray, the prime suspect in the sensational Mahalakshmi murder case, allegedly died by suicide outside his house in Bhadrak district, Odisha, on Wednesday, even as a Karnataka Police team was looking for him in that state's region bordering West Bengal.

Ray's body was found hanging from a tree. He is believed to have used a rope to end his life. Later in the evening, police recovered a note from his house in which he had reportedly confessed to killing the woman, police sources said.

The maggot-infested dismembered body of Mahalakshmi was found stashed in the refrigerator at her home in Bengaluru's Vyalikaval on September 21, after neighbours complained of a stench emanating from the flat. She had reportedly been chopped into 59 pieces. P3

'Victim was stabbed'

Mahalakshmi reportedly died of stab injuries, said sources on the condition of anonymity. "She was allegedly fatally stabbed in her chest and abdomen, which claimed her life," sources added. P3

LOKAYUKTA PROBE AGAINST SIDDU, FAMILY IN MUDA CASE

Spl Court also orders registration of case under Prohibition of Benami Property Transactions Act, Karnataka Land Grabbing Prohibition Act

YATHIRAJU @ Bengaluru

THE Special Court to try cases against sitting and former MPs/MLAs on Wednesday directed Lokayukta police to investigate allegations against Chief Minister Siddaramaiah involving illegal allotment of 14 compensatory sites to his wife Parvathy BM by Mysore Urban Development Authority (MUDA). Lokayukta police were asked to investigate the complaint and submit a report to the court within three months.

The court also directed Superintendent of Police (SP), Mysuru Division, of Karnataka Lokayukta, to register a case under the provisions of the Prohibition of Benami Property Transactions Act, 1988, and Karnataka Land Grabbing Prohibition Act, 2011. This is in addition to provisions under Indian Penal Code sections 120B (conspiracy), 166 (disobeying law), 403 (misappropriation), 406 (breach of trust), 420 (cheating), 426 (mischief), 465 (forgery), 468 (forgery of electronic record), 340 (wrongful confinement), 351 (use of criminal force) and other relevant sections of the IPC, under Section 9 (bribing public servant) and 13 (criminal misconduct) of the Prevention of Corruption Act.

This comes a day after the Karnataka High Court gave its nod to Governor Thaawarchand Gehlot's approval to conduct a probe into the MUDA case, and the alleged illegal allotment of 14 sites to Siddaramaiah's wife Parvathy.

The special court also registered a private complaint against the Chief Minister, Parvathy, his brother-in-law Mallikarjuna Swamy, one Devaraju J and others, in connection with the illegal allotment of compensatory sites to his wife by MUDA.

The case pertains to 14 sites worth Rs 56 crore being allotted to Parvathy in upscale Vijayanagar 3rd Stage for land acquired at Kesare village, a downmarket area on the outskirts of Mysuru, with Siddaramaiah allegedly taking undue advantage when in power.

READY TO FACE PROBE, SAYS CM

CM Siddaramaiah on Wednesday reiterated that he is prepared to face any probe in the MUDA site allotment case and will continue the legal fight. After getting the copy of the order by the Special Court for Elected Representatives, he would discuss the next course of action with the legal team, the CM said. "We are prepared to face any investigation. We are not scared of investigation and are prepared for the legal fight," the CM said, while reacting to the special court order. P4

SC tells courts to avoid misogynistic remarks

SUCHITRA KALYAN MOHANTY @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Wednesday warned courts across India against making remarks that could be construed as "misogynistic" or directed towards a certain "gender or community".

"Courts, therefore, have to be careful not to make comments in the course of judicial proceedings which may be construed as being misogynistic or for that matter prejudicial to any segment of our society," a five-judge bench of the court said while closing the suo motu proceedings over Karnataka High Court judge Justice V Srishananda's alleged objectionable comments during his one of his court hearings.

The bench headed by Chief Justice D Y Chandarchud advised judges to conduct proceedings conscious of the wider impact of casual observations on the community at large.

In video clips that went viral on social media, Justice Srishananda was seen making some objectionable comments against a woman lawyer when she intervened in an ongoing hearing. The bench said it refrained from any further proceedings against Justice Srishananda considering that he had apologised, and to maintain the dignity of the judicial system.

Regarding Justice Srishananda's remarks calling an area in Bengaluru as 'Pakistan', the bench said, "No one can call any part of India as Pakistan. It is fundamentally against the territorial integrity of the nation."

The bench also rejected demands by various sections of the Bar to halt the live streaming of Karnataka High Court proceedings. The demands were raised citing misuse of court videos on social media.

Landslide: Skeletal remains in truck cabin found

SUBHASH CHANDRA NS @ Shirur (Uttara Kannada)

FOLLOWING a 72-day-long search, the cabin belonging to the truck of Kerala native Arjun, who went missing following a devastating landslide at Shirur in Ankola taluk of Uttara Kannada district, was finally recovered from the Gangavali River on Wednesday. Authorities mentioned that skeletal remains found inside the cabin could be of Arjun, a Kozhikode native, but DNA tests will have to be conducted to confirm the same.

The wreckage was found after an intensive search operation, involving divers, who resumed the third phase of search operations earlier this week. "The search team managed to look for the cabin of the truck, which was fished out around 4 pm. Munaf, the truck's owner, identified it as belonging to his vehicle," an official said.

Munaf thanked Uttara Kannada DC Lakshmi Priya, MLA Satish Krishna Sail and SP M Narayan for their efforts in tracing the missing truck. P5

2nd airport site to be decided after air space is freed up: Official

S LALITHA @Bengaluru

THE site for the second airport for Bengaluru is nowhere near finalisation. The main issue for this is the absence of air space to operate flights and the government is taking steps to arrive at a solution, Karnataka Infrastructure Development Department Secretary N Manjula said on Wednesday.

"Multiple locations have been identified, but we have not finalised any. The real issue is the absence of air space as they fall under the jurisdiction of the existing airports in the city," Manjula told TNIE.

The government held talks last week with the Bangalore International Airport Limited, operator of the Kempegowda International Airport, Hindustan Aeronautical Limited and defence authorities at the Air Force Station in Yelahanka in this connection, she said. "The existing space above Bengaluru is covered 360 degrees by these airports. Even the skies in neighbouring areas are covered by them. The location for the new airport can be finalised only after free air space is made available," Manjula said.

She said HAL said they use the air space even up to Coimbatore for their research and other flight testing purposes. BIAL utilises the air space for 30 km beyond Devanahalli while the Indian Air Force uses air space up to Hassan. "We have asked them to write to us about the air space that they can make available to us. Some form of consensus needs to be arrived at. They will not be operating flights 24x7. So, some timing needs to be made available for the proposed airport to operate," she said.

Manjula added that the issue can be sorted only with assistance from the Ministry of Civil Aviation or the Directorate General of Civil Aviation. "We need their support to ensure that some sort of airspace relaxation is created so that we can finalise our second airport," the official said.

The following locations were shortlisted last month: Between Nelamangala and Kunigal, Harohalli on Kanakapura Road, Dobbaspet and areas in the vicinity of Koratagere, Tumakuru, Huliyurdurga and Malavalli.

CoP: ROAD FATALITY IS PREVENTABLE, BUT INDIA LAGS IN SAFETY

Responsible road behaviour, better education can achieve this, says Police Commissioner

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

"ROAD safety is a critical but overlooked issue in India, where every fatality is preventable. While Western countries aim for zero deaths, India lags behind," said Bangalore City Police Commissioner B Dayananda. He also suggested that vehicle manufacturers develop solutions like a two-wheeler which starts only if the rider wears a helmet, and a four-wheeler starts only after seatbelts are fastened.

He was sharing his views during a technical session at the 25th annual convention of the Society for Automotive Fitness & Environment (SAFE), an initiative of the Society of Indian Automobile Manufacturers (SIAM), which is held with the theme 'Smart Mobility: Integrating Safety with Sustainability', here on Wednesday.

Responsible road behaviour must become habitual, and there is need better education to achieve this. Educating the younger generation is key, as reliance on enforcement alone is insufficient, the top cop said. He stated that traffic police are doing a commendable job by tracking traffic violations with the help of artificial intelligence and generating challans.

Stating that the future of public transport lies in innovation, and Karnataka's vast network of 25,000 buses is at the forefront of this transformation, Karnataka State Road Transport Corporation (KSRTC) MD V Anbu Kumar stated at another session, titled 'Emerging Trends in Vehicular Technology', "If all buses under public bus corporations are put together, there are more than 1.6 lakh buses in India. On an average, 20,000 buses which clock 8 lakh kilometers are scrapped every year and it is a huge market for vehicle manufacturers. However, when public buses needs upgradation, we don't have many options."

He urged vehicle manufacturers to give multiple options in terms of vehicle seating, height of the bus floor from the ground, colours, aesthetics and other options, so that bus corporations like KSRTC can customise whichever suits their passengers best, and upgrade their bus fleet.

Pressing on the need for modernisation, Kumar said, "Beyond 12-metre buses, there is no major penetration. If we have 13.5-metre long buses, we can add more seats and increase carrying capacity."

Train not stuck in traffic, had stopped for checks

A video grab of the train amid vehicles

THE Yesvantpur-Kochuveli Express developed an issue just near the closed level crossing gate of Munnekolala in Marathahalli on Tuesday night, and was brought to a halt. The gateman, meanwhile, opened the gate to clear road traffic until the problem was set right. An Instagrammer shot a video of the stationary train, captioning it as a train stuck in a traffic jam in the city, which went viral.

A senior railway official told TNIE, "Train no. 12257 was stopped by the loco-pilot before level crossing gate 133 on September 24, between Baiyappanahalli and Carmelaram due to a rake check being carried out by the crew.""To avoid traffic congestion on the road, the gateman opened the LC gate. The train passed after completion of rake checks and closure of the gate," the official added.

The video shot by Sudhir Chakravarthi depicts the loco-pilot on board Kochuveli Express, honking and waiting on the railway tracks, while traffic is piled up on SJR Dental College Road, with cars and autos stuck from one side of the gate to the other. It is likely it was shot after the issue was set right and the loco crew is signalling a message to the gateman.

Chakravarthi, a systems analyst, uploaded the video on Tuesday night with the caption: "Just Bengaluru things. Not just me or you, even trains can't escape Bengaluru traffic." The post went viral with nearly 2 lakh views, and the public had a whale of a time mocking at Bengaluru's traffic.

MLA in trouble, RR Nagar works under lens

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

BJP MLA Munirathna appears to be in deeper trouble with Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) Chief Commissioner Tushar Girinath ordering an inquiry into developmental works taken up in Rajarajeshwari Nagar assembly constituency between 2020 and 2022. Girinath said a committee of three IAS officers and two engineers, headed by BBMP Revenue Commissioner Munish Moudgil, will probe the works. The Palike will take further action based on the inquiry report.

According to the order, Special Commissioner Moudgil will head the committee, while Special Commissioners of BBMP projects and finance, chief engineer, quality assurance and quality control, are members. The chief engineer, Technical Vigilance Cell under the Commissioner, will be a member secretary.

Girinath stated that there were media reports that during these two years, more funds were allocated to RR Nagar segment. "We have formed a committee to probe this. We will check whether all rules and regulations were followed," he said, adding that the probe will look into whether there is a link between shoddy work and bills, or unauthorised works were taken up to get bills released. Based on details of the report, further steps will be taken," he said.

Velu Nayakar, former corporator of Lakshmidevi Nagar ward, and once a close aide of Munirathna, said he welcomes the move. "BBMP should have investigated it long ago. Many contractors who got benefits will be caught," said Nayakar, who also filed a case against the MLA, accusing him of insulting people belonging to Scheduled Caste, in which Munirathna was arrested.

Venkatesh, former corporator of Yeshwantpur ward and a close aide of the MLA, said it is vendetta politics. "If the probe is unbiased, the MLA will come out clean," he said.

At present, Munirathna is in custody of the Special Investigation Team as he faces three criminal cases — two in Vyalikaval police station for assault and a casteist remark on a BBMP contractor, and one in Ramanagara in connection with a rape and blackmail case.

Gate collapse: Boy's family gets Rs 10L compensation

Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar and Health Minister Dinesh Gundu Rao hand over the compensation cheque to the parents of Niranjan on Wednesday

Bengaluru: A compensation of Rs 10 lakh was handed over on Wednesday to the family of 10-year-old Niranjan, who lost his life when a metal gate collapsed on him at a Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) playground in Malleshwaram on September 22. Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar and Health Minister Dinesh Gundu Rao visited the boy's house and presented the cheque to his parents. Gundu Rao assured the family that the R Gundu Rao Foundation will take full responsibility for the education of Niranjan's sister. Speaking to the media, Shivakumar said following the incident, engineer Srinivas has been suspended. "The boy's family has also made the noble decision to donate his eyes, which is commendable," he said, adding that he has instructed officials that all parks in the city be thoroughly checked to prevent such incidents in the future. ENS

Elusive Electronics City leopard takes the bait after eight days

BOSKY KHANNA @Bengaluru

The leopard was trapped in a cage placed by forest officials in Electronics City late on Tuesday night. It was later released into a conducive habitat | EXPRESS

AFTER an eight-day search operation, forest officials finally captured the elusive leopard that had been prowling at Electronics City late on Tuesday night. The animal was released into a conducive habitat after a thorough medical examination on Wednesday.

According to forest officials, the operation to capture the spotted cat was different from what is normally undertaken. "Here we used thermal drone cameras 24x7 for four days and nights. We also held meetings with IT professionals and industry employees, giving them a list of dos and don'ts. We also installed many cages and kept shifting them based on the leopard's movement," said a senior forest official.

Officials also decided to keep the entire operation a secret. "After the Kudlu incident wherein a leopard was shot dead during the capture operation, we did not want people gathering in large numbers and hampering the tracking operation," the official said.

The leopard was captured just a day before the visit of Union Minister Jyotiraditya Scindia to the Centre for Development of Telematics in Electronics City.

It is a male leopard aged four-five years. "It is healthy with no injuries and all its canines are intact. It had made the region, located around 14 km from Bannerghatta National Park, its home for the last three months. The area has an abundance of food -- street dogs, peacocks and small herbivores. It was trapped in a 'Tumakuru' cage. We can say that this is the first successful and smooth capture operation in a city like Bengaluru," the official said.

Tumkuru cages are large cages measuring 20x20 sqft. They do not look like cages as they are blended with vegetation. Three or more baits are kept. They are not like the usual cages, which have a small opening where the animal is made to crawl in.

"The animal was captured between 11.50 pm and 12 am. It would not have moved around much for three days after hunting a street dog. Hence, it was not sighted by people for long," the official added.

On September 17, around 3 am, the CCTV camera at Electronic City toll plaza recorded the leopard. A CCTV at Nettur Technical Training Foundation had also captured the leopard wandering outside its boundary. Electronics City houses institutions like Wipro, Infosys, Biocon, Tata Consultancy, ITI and many other companies.

The forest staffers have also issued notice to industrial areas and tech companies to keep their premises clean of bushes, weeds, shrubs and garbage waste, which provide safe spaces for leopards.

Ex-APCCF gets notice as min seeks HMT land case details

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

FOREST Minister Eshwar B Khandre on Wednesday said a showcause notice has been issued to former additional principal chief conservator of forests Venkatasubbaiah and other divisional forest officials, seeking details in the HMT land case within seven days.

In a letter to forest officials, which was also addressed to the chief secretary, the minister said 599 acres of land in survey numbers 1 and 2 in Peenya-Jalahalli was declared a forest area as per the gazette notification in 1896. However, the land was transferred to the HMT without conversion by the then district collector.

Khandre said the forest department has to give a no objection certificate for transfer of land, but that has not been obtained. Also, of the total land, HMT sold 165 acres to the government and private institutions for a whopping Rs 313.65 crore.

In the letter, Khandre said then APCCF Venkatasubbaiah, under 64(a), issued orders to recover the encroached land in 2015. But HMT did not reply to the notice as well as the orders within the stipulated time frame.

He added that later, without getting any approval from the forest department or the forest minister, some forest officials tried to submit an interim petition to the Supreme Court, which created suspicion. Hence, a notice has been served to all officials concerned to explain why denotification was done without the cabinet or forest minister's approval, he said.

26TH September: I have been re-reading the works of a venerable astrologer from the last century who argued that astrology doesn't tell is about the way the world is, but the way the world can be. And that goes for us as well: astrology reveals who we can become.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
Events that take place very soon will provide you with an opportunity to rebuild bridges and find permanent solutions to seemingly intractable partnership problems. Some difficulties may be solved with a little extra spending, but mainly with more emotional grit.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
It is for you to gauge the moods of close compa-nions and associates. However, at least one person is making it particularly difficult for you to fathom what their long-term plans are, let alone why they should be acting so incredibly strangely.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
What appears to be arrogance and intransigence is really the belligerent planet Mars urging you to stand up for yourself whatever the opposition. Face obstacles with courage and determination, and throw money at any problems which can be bought off.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
Steering others through a difficult patch will both lift your own morale and foster happiness among close friends and relatives. Everyone will benefit from a dose of your famous compassion. I know you'll be under pressure, but you'll feel better if you take care of others.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
You must collect your thoughts and fight for what you know to be right. Justice means not only securing your own interests against others' interference, but protecting those who are weaker than you. You have probably figured out by now that you are here to help friends and strangers.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
Now that the planetary formation is changing, your willingness to co-operate and try out a new format will make the coming months that much more agreeable. Happiness depends on harmonious relationships, and right now you could do with a little extra passion and enthusiasm.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
You may have come to suspect that you are unlikely to get a fair deal whatever the circums-tances. However, events that take place soon will strengthen your hand and increase your bargaining power. You will have to lay down the law at home - or lose a struggle.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
Life is too precious to waste by dwelling on past problems, so forget about recent trials and tribulations, and concentrate on creating a lighter atmosphere. It is up to you to restore good feeling. Once you have done that, you will be able to make your mind up!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
Developments which are now imminent are likely to have a dramatic impact on your working life and may disrupt your routine in a number of areas. A shake-out could prove useful though, even profitable. In the short-run, you may have to spend a little money in order to make more.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
It's in taking responsibility for your own needs and desires that you assume control over your personal affairs. Right now, only you can decide whether one particular relationship or association ought to become a permanent and ongoing feature of your life.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
Your life over the past couple of years has often resembled a seesaw, swinging one way, then the other. You're going through another change now, as issues which are fundamental to your entire existence re-assert themselves. All the important issues, though, seem to be hidden.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
You probably don't realise just how much has been accomplished through your own efforts, because other people are likely to hog the limelight. You don't need public acclaim to know that you have done well. You just need to realise that other people really like you!

ANGERED BY CONSTANT NAGGING TO MARRY HER, RAY KILLED MAHALAKSHMI

Police got leads to murderer on first day itself; Ray was known to be short-tempered

RAKSHITH GOWDA @ Bengaluru

CONSTANTLY pestering her lover and colleague Mukti Ranjan Ray to marry her, cost Mahalakshmi her life. Angered by the constant pressure from Mahalakshmi, Ray decided to finish her off as he had no intention of marrying her, police investigation has revealed.

Police had got many leads to the murderer, and had almost zeroed in on him even as investigation began.

Mahalakshmi and Ray were working for the same company. Ray (30), who was unmarried, was working as team leader in the clothing factory in Malleswaram, where Mahalakshmi had joined a few months ago. They were in a relationship.

Both were absent from work on September 2, the day Ray is suspected to have murdered

The victim's house in Vyalikaval in Bengaluru | VINOD KUMAR T

Mahalakshmi. Police suspect the couple got into a fight over marriage on that fateful day, and enraged by her pestering, Ray murdered her in her Vyalikaval house.

"The victim had last gone to work on September 1. The next day was her weekly off, so she did not go to work. The suspect also took leave on the same day, and both didn't return to work after that," a police officer said. They had accessed their call details record (CDR) which matched, and also found chats between the duo.

Ray was known to be short-tempered. Right from the alleged murderer's colleagues to his brother, each one confirmed that Ray was short tempered and was capable of taking the decision to kill Mahalakshmi," a police officer told TNIE.

After murdering Mahalakshmi, Ray called his brother who resides in Hebbagodi, confessed his crime and escaped from Bengaluru, the officer said. Police also confirmed that the murderer was in Odisha, and a team had gone to nab him, before which he is alleged to have died by suicide. After the postmortem report, police will file a chargesheet in court.

She died of stab injuries on her chest, abdomen

BALA CHAUHAN @ Bengaluru

MAHALAKSHMI, the 29-year-old woman whose dismembered body parts were found stuffed inside a refrigerator in her one-bedroom house in Vyalikaval police station limits, reportedly died of stab injuries, said sources on condition of anonymity.

"She was allegedly fatally stabbed in her chest and abdomen, which claimed her life. It is not clear when she was murdered because the body parts were kept inside the refrigerator and were not decomposed. It is also difficult to say whether one or more than one person was involved in the murder and butchering of the body," said sources.

Police are yet to recover weapons used for killing the woman and dismembering her. Investigation also suffered a setback after the alleged prime accused, Mukti Ranjan Ray, died by suicide in his native Bhuinpur village in Bhadrak district, Odisha. "It is a big setback for the investigation as the suspect is not available any more for interrogation and investigation. The forensic analysis of evidence recovered from the crime site will help nail the criminal if he (Ray) was actually the perpetrator," added sources.

'Suspect may have sensed cops zeroing in on him'

HOME Minister Dr G Parameshwara had recently confirmed that the prime suspect was from Odisha, but had fled Bengaluru after the gruesome murder.

Sources said that a five-member team of Bengaluru City Police arrived in Odisha on Tuesday, and informed their counterparts here about the prime suspect's involvement in the murder. The police team had no information about Ray's exact address, but had quietly fanned out to the northern districts of Balasore and Bhadrak on Wednesday, in an attempt to ensure that he did not get a whiff about the manhunt launched to nab him. On Wednesday morning, Dhusuri police found Ray hanging from a tree near his house and a case of unnatural death was registered.

Postmortem was conducted and his body was handed over to the family members later in the day. When Bengaluru police shared the details of Ray with Bhadrak police, it turned out that he was the same person who had ended his life outside his house. Police sources said he had likely got wind of Bengaluru police zeroing in on him. Realising that he could not escape the repercussions, he may have ended his life, they said. "Preliminary investigation suggests Ray died by suicide. However, investigation is under way from all angles, including probabilities of foul play. Our investigation is continuing and required assistance is also being provided to Bengaluru police," Bhadrak SP Varun Guntupalli said.

Initial investigation had revealed Ray and Mahalakshmi were colleagues in Bengaluru. Police are verifying when he returned to his native village in Bhadrak district.

HC refuses anticipatory bail to DySP in Bitcoin scam

Bengaluru: The Karnataka High Court denied anticipatory bail to Deputy Superintendent of Police Shridhar K Pujar, Internal Security Division, who is accused of allegedly coercing passwords from hacker Shriki, the prime accused in the Bitcoin scam, by threatening him with a police encounter. "The allegations against the petitioner and the co-accused shocked the conscience of the court and the general public. It is alleged that the petitioner and other police officers who hold high posts in the criminal justice system have stooped to such a level of tampering the documents with the help of the accused in the case," said Justice MG Uma while rejecting Pujar's plea for anticipatory bail. The accused moved the court seeking anticipatory bail in the crime registered by the Special Investigation Team of the CID probing the Bitcoin scam. The Special Public Prosecutor (SPP) Prasanna Kumar P submitted that the statement of the accused Shrikrishna aka Shriki recorded before the magistrate disclosed that Pujar had threatened to finish him in an encounter and managed to get the MacBook valet password and the password to the cloud account. The court emphasised the seriousness of the allegations, particularly given that senior police officers, including the investigating officer (IO) and head of the technical centre were involved in the crime. "The gravity of the offence demands strict action," the court said, rejecting Pujar's senior advocate's argument that denying anticipatory bail would affect numerous other cases wherein he had investigated as an investigating officer.

65-year-old arrested for farming ganja

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

A 65-YEAR-OLD farmer was arrested by the Doddabelavangala police, Bengaluru rural district on Monday for growing ganja inside his sugarcane crop.

The police recovered 16 kilograms of ganja worth about Rs 1.6 lakhs. The accused identified as Narasappa, a resident of Abbe Gowdanapalya confessed to cultivating ganja to sell and make fast money. Sources said that the ganja was grown in his backyard and was sold to drug peddlers. However, the accused did not have a history of drug consumption.

Following credible information, a team of policemen along with another government officer, raided the crop. "The accused had cultivated ganja inside the sugarcane crop, to avoid suspicion. We are checking his call records to find out if he was in touch with any other drug dealer. The accused when interrogated had no contacts with other peddlers," said an police officer.

Raids expose irregularities at excise offices

ENS @Bengaluru

SLEUTHS of the Karnataka Lokayukta, who carried out raids on multiple excise department offices across Bengaluru, have found a range of irregularities -- in issuing excise licences; appointing individuals illegally, who were paid by excise officials themselves; not maintaining cash and attendance registers; and officials remaining absent from work. The raids that were led by Lokayukta Justice BS Patil and Upa Lokayukta Justice B Veerappa on September 24. During the raid at the Indiranagar excise office, the Lokayukta found files being managed improperly. It was found that there were 61 files with applications for excise licences under CL-2 (retail), CL-9 (bars and restaurants), CL-7 (hotels and boarding houses), which lacked any file numbers, note and final order.

A bag of ganja and liquor bottles were found at the Ramamurthynagar excise office, and the excise officials failed to produce any documents and crime numbers related to this. It was found that the excise officials had appointed private individuals illegally, who were being paid salaries to the tune of Rs 20,000 by the officials.

At the Koramangala excise office, an unidentified person is said to have run away with the attendance and cash register books. At the Yelahanka excise office, Excise Inspector Chandramurthy had signed in the attendance register, but was not in the office.

Not afraid, ready to face probe, says Siddaramaiah

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru:

CHIEF Minister Siddaramaiah on Wednesday reiterated that he is prepared to face any investigation in the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) site allotment case and will continue the legal fight. After getting the copy of the order by the Special Court for Elected Representatives, he would discuss the next course of action with the legal team, the CM told reporters.

A day after the Karnataka High Court dismissed his petition challenging the Governor's approval for an investigation against Siddaramaiah in the MUDA case, a special court in Bengaluru directed Lokayukta Police in Mysuru to investigate the case and submit a report within three months.

"We are prepared to face any investigation. We are not scared of investigation and are prepared for the legal fight. I have said yesterday (Tuesday) and reiterating it today (Wednesday)," the CM said, while reacting to the special court order. It came as a second setback to the CM in as many days in the MUDA case.

He said the special court directed the Lokayutka Police to probe the case. "I am yet to get the copy of the order. I will react after going through the order copy," the CM said when asked if they would file an appeal against the High Court and the special court orders.

Siddaramaiah said that the case has been referred to the Lokayukta Police in Mysuru as the complainant is from there, the case was filed there, and the MUDA is located there.

Desai commission to continue probe

CM Siddaramaiah said that the judicial commission headed by Justice PN Desai will continue with its probe into alleged irregularities in the allotment of sites by the MUDA. The State Government has constituted the commission.

No question of CM quitting: Zameer

Housing and Minorities Welfare Minister BZ Zameer Ahmed Khan categorically said there is no question of CM Siddaramaiah resigning. He said an order has been issued for a Lokayukta investigation. Let the probe begin, and the truth will come out. Siddaramaiah has no role in this matter, he said. An order for investigation has come from the Special Court for Elected Representatives, and they are ready for the investigation. "The high command is with Siddaramaiah. MLAs and ministers are standing by him. We have all told him not to resign. He will fight this legally, and no one will be able to dislodge him for the next five years. The MUDA case is entirely politically motivated," he added.

BJP for CBI probe, wants Siddu to go

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

AFTER the Special Court in Bengaluru directed Lokayukta Police to probe the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) site allotment case against Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and submit the report within three months, the Opposition BJP reiterated its demand for Chief Minister Siddaramaiah's resignation and a CBI probe into the matter.

On Thursday, the state BJP is staging a protest in front of the Mahatma Gandhi statue on the premises of Vidhana Soudha in Bengaluru.

Senior BJP leaders, including state BJP chief BY Vijayendra, Leader of Opposition in Assembly R Ashok, Leader of Opposition in Council Chalavadi Narayanaswamy, MPs, MLAs, and MLCs will take part in the protest demonstration demanding the chief minister's resignation and a CBI probe into MUDA case and the multi-crore scam at the ST Development corporation, said a BJP leader.

Earlier in the day, speaking to media persons Vijayendra said to ensure a free and impartial probe the CM must refer the case to CBI and resign from his post.

"Lokayutka police in the CM's home district Mysuru cannot conduct an impartial probe," he said. When he was the Opposition leader, Siddaramaiah had asked the then CM BS Yediyurappa to resign to ensure a fair and impartial probe, the BJP leader said and added that the CM should not remember what he had stated then.

He said that the BJP's stand on the MUDA issue is clear and it is not limited to 14 sites allotted to the chief minister's wife as sites worth Rs 4-5 crore have been given to realtors. The CBI will be able to conduct a comprehensive probe, he said. Ashoka said Siddaramaiah should resign and cooperate with the probe. The CM has no option but to resign, he said.

'SUBMIT REPORT IN THREE MONTHS'

ORDERING registration of the private complaint, Judge Santhosh Gajanan Bhat of the Special Court directed that the order be communicated to the Lokayukta SP, Mysuru Division, for conducting investigation without delay and submitting the report in three months as contemplated under Section 173 of CrPC.

On Tuesday, the HC after upholding the Governor's approval for a probe under Section 17A of the Prevention of Corruption Act against Siddaramaiah, vacated the interim stay order on proceedings pending before the Special Court, which passed the order on Wednesday. The Governor gave approval for a probe in response to complaints filed by social workers Snehamayi Krishna, TJ Abraham and advocate Pradeep Kumar SP. Siddaramaiah had moved the high court against the approval, but suffered a setback with the HC dismissing it, observing that the investigation was undoubtedly required since he was "behind the smoke screen for every benefit that has flown to his wife in terms of the sites allotted to her".

Referring to this, the special court said the High Court had also pointed out the prima facie role of Siddaramaiah, and hence should not fight shy of any investigation. Therefore, Lokayukta police should conduct the probe and submit the report by December 24, the Special Court said.

Earlier, senior counsel Lakshmy Iyengar, representing complainant Snehamayi Krishna, produced a copy of the High Court verdict before the Special Court, and argued in favour of an investigation.

Complainant approaches Lokayukta seeking FIR against Siddu, wife, son

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Mysuru

IN a significant development following the Karnataka High Court's ruling on the MUDA case, Pradeep Kumar, one of the complainants, approached Lokayukta police in Mysuru on Wednesday demanding immediate registration of FIR against Chief Minister Siddaramaiah, his wife Parvathi, son Dr Yathindra, and other officials allegedly involved in the scam.

Pradeep submitted his complaint to Lokayukta SP TJ Udesh on Wednesday, along with a copy of the court's verdict delivered by Justice M Nagaprasanna.

Pradeep expressed dissatisfaction when the Lokayukta officer refused to provide an immediate endorsement on his previously submitted complaint, leading to a tense exchange when he threatened to stage a dharna. Outside the Lokayukta office, Pradeep accused officials of working under political pressure and deliberately delaying the probe.

"I have filed a complaint demanding FIRs against Chief Minister Siddaramaiah, his family, and other officials implicated in the MUDA plot allocations. The High Court has clearly ruled that no permission is required to begin the investigation, yet the Lokayukta is stalling under political pressure," Pradeep said.

He further alleged that despite the absence of a stay order, Lokayukta officials were citing the need to study the judgment before acting on his complaint.

"This is nothing but a delay tactic. I have insisted that the FIR be filed and those responsible be held accountable, but the officers are clearly under the CM's influence," Pradeep asserted.

Pradeep also revealed that his previous complaint had gone unacknowledged, and his frustrations grew when the Lokayukta failed to take action on the current one and when asked about this officials told that the file was at the Lokayukta head office.

PM targets Cong using MUDA row in poll-bound Haryana; CM hits back

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

HITTING out at PM Narendra Modi for raising the alleged MUDA land scam in Karnataka in his election speech in poll-bound Haryana, CM Siddaramaiah called the former's charges baseless. Siddaramaiah said that he was glad to see Modi finally talking about corruption.

"The people of Karnataka have seen only the puppets dancing with false allegations against me. Now it is time for them to know the mastermind behind it all. Don't fire shots from afar, If you're ready for a direct debate, I am always ready," Siddaramaiah told Modi. The CM said Modi, who is accused by his own party leaders of auctioning the CM's post for Rs 2,500 crore, has no moral right to speak about corruption. "Day after day, BJP MLAs are involved in corruption, yet Modi remains silent. What's the reason for this silence, Mr Modi? Are you complicit in this corruption?" he asked. The CM said that if the PM could show one BJP leader in Karnataka who is not corrupt, the latter would be invited to the state and honoured.

Siddaramaiah went on to add that the PM has inducted HD Kumaraswamy, who according to him is allegedly involved in an illegal mining scam, into his cabinet. "Doesn't your conscience prickle when you accuse others of corruption? Why is the Honorable Governor turning a blind eye to Lokayukta's request for permission to prosecute in this scam? Who's pressuring him, Mr. Modi?" he said.

The CM said, "The nation has watched for the past 11 years as your office has turned into a washing machine, cleaning the corruption stains of opposition leaders who join BJP. Since 2014, more than 25 opposition leaders with corruption allegations have joined your party, and 23 of them have been cleared by central agencies. Isn't this a miracle?" the CM added. "From Himanta Biswa Sarma to Suvendu Adhikari, Kumaraswamy, Ajit Pawar, Ashok Chavan, Narayan Rane, and the latest, Muniratna—how many corrupt leaders have you washed clean in your machine?" the CM asked Modi.

CM NOT UNDER PRESSURE FROM PARTY TO RESIGN: HOME MINISTER

BENGALURU: A day after Chief Minister Siddaramaiah faced a setback in the Karnataka High Court, Home Minister G Parameshwara said the CM is not under pressure from the party to resign. "CM Siddaramaiah has already clarified he is not going to resign and there is no such talk in the party. Even the party high command is backing the CM," he said. Parameshwara told reporters on Wednesday that BJP members are constantly demanding the CM's resignation, and he has clarified his stand. "Our leaders KC Venugopal and Randeep Singh Surjewala have also clarified on this. They are all with the CM," he said. He also claimed that the CM has no role in the MUDA issue. "There is an option to fight it legally, so there is no need for his resignation. The CM has not signed any files or documents. He has not misused his power, and based on this he went to court. The court order was not in our favour. We respect the order but feel we did not get justice. The CM said he is taking the legal fight ahead," he said. It will be decided whether he approaches the Supreme Court or High Court division bench. Parameshwara said the opposition is insisting that Siddaramaiah should step down, but it will not happen. "He has been in politics for four decades and has not faced such allegations. Now due to political vendetta, allegations are being made. We will prove they are false," he said. He said the Governor has got more power with the High Court order, but this should be applicable to all cases, including those related to Union Minister HD Kumaraswamy, former minister Shashikala Jolle, Murugesh Nirani and others. "Why is it limited to one section, this does not feel like justice is done," he said, denying that the CM has become weak. ENS

CM should quit in public interest, says ex-Lokayukta Justice Hegde

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Mangaluru

FORMER Lokayukta Justice Santosh Hegde on Wednesday said that Chief Minister Siddaramaiah should resign in the light of the Karnataka High Court's observations that there is prima facie evidence in the alleged MUDA scam and added that he could return as the CM if found innocent.

On growing demand for Siddaramaiah's resignation, Hegde said that the CM should resign in the public interest given the serious nature of the allegations, though the law does not demand the same. "Before the High Court judgment, he (Siddaramaiah) said he had done no wrong. But now the High Court has said that there is prima facie evidence, and hence I think the chief minister should resign," Hegde said. Referring to the HC rejecting Siddaramaiah's application against Governor Thaawarchand Gehlot giving approval for an investigation against the former in the MUDA case, Hegde said the chances of him getting relief in the Supreme Court are remote. He refused to comment on whether the scam should be probed by CBI or Lokayukta.

Hegde gave the example of former PM Lal Bahadur Shastri, who had resigned as railway minister on moral grounds following a train accident in Arilayur in Tamil Nadu in 1956, and said such practice is not found nowadays.

Hedge also took a critical view at the practice of seeking governor's sanction to prosecute ministers and bureaucrats and hinted that it should be done away. He said the practice was started by the British to save their officers and indicated that it does not hold true under the principle of equality. "When an ordinary citizen can be prosecuted without any sanction, why should politicians get such protection? Let the courts protect them. Even false cases can be filed against ordinary citizens and not just politicians. Are they superior? That is causing a lot of delay, and then they go to court. Let the citizens also get the same privilege. When equality is the principal of the constitution, why should one have such protection and the other denied?" he said.

ACTOR Siddique, who is facing rape charges, on Wednesday approached the Supreme Court in an attempt to evade arrest after the Kerala High Court rejected his anticipatory bail petition.

The veteran actor filed the anticipatory bail in a case pertaining to rape allegations levelled by a young aspiring actress in 2016. Siddique contended before the Supreme Court that the High Court denied anticipatory bail to him on the ground that his custodial interrogation is inevitable for the proper investigation of the crime, especially since his defence is in total denial of the incident and his potency test is to be conducted. The High Court also cited the apprehension of the prosecution that Siddique may intimidate the witness and tamper with the witness. As per the document filed by Siddique which is accessed by TNIE, the total denial of the alleged incident by the accused cannot be a ground for custodial interrogation. The accused has a "constitutional right to remain silent", the veteran actor submitted before the apex court in the plea filed through Advocate Ranjeeta Rohatgi. Senior lawyer and former Attorney General for India Mukul Rohatgi is expected to represent the actor before the Supreme Court. Court is expected to consider the case on Friday.

Siddique

"The denial of the allegations raised by the complainant by the accused would not render the accused to be kept in custody for custodial interrogation," the petition said, adding that the High Court failed to consider that. The petition also argued that the High Court failed to consider the contention that he is willing to cooperate with the investigation agency including the potency test, despite there is no allegation of sexual intercourse or commission of offense by him warranting the potency test. Prosecution itself has stated that statements of the survivor and the persons cited by her have been recorded therefore the intimidation and tampering of evidence does not arise.

In response, the state government has filed a 'caveat plea,' against Siddique's anticipatory bail petition at the apex court, requesting that no decision be made without hearing its arguments. Additionally, the victim has also filed a petition in the Supreme Court to oppose Siddique's bail. Meanwhile, the search for Siddique by the SIT yielded no results on Wednesday. According to police sources, the actor is believed to be hiding somewhere within the state with the help of friends.

Why is Dileep objecting to probe, HC asks

The Kerala High Court on Wednesday sought to know why actor Dileep, the eighth accused in the 2017 actor abduction and sexual assault case, is objecting to an investigation into the illegal access of a memory card while it was in the custody of the trial court. The HC noted that the state government does not have any objection to the investigation. "What is your (Dileep's) objection? This is a matter purely between the court. A document produced in the court has been tampered with. Somebody has committed a crime. You are only an intervener, you can just submit the matter," the HC said.

TTD FILES COMPLAINT AGAINST AR DAIRY

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Vijayawada

TIRUMALA Tirupati Devasthanams (TTD), the custodian of the hill shrine of Lord Venkateswara in Tirumala, complained to the police against Tamil Nadu-based AR Dairy Foods Pvt Ltd on the issue of supplying adulterated ghee, for use in the making of Prasdam to Lord Venkateswara.

TTD's marketing and procurement wing general manager Murali Krishna gave a written complaint to the Tirupati East Police station on Wednesday afternoon. In his complaint, he mentioned the violation of the tender agreement and said that AR Dairy had not rectified their lapses even after a warning from TTD's higher officials and had supplied adulterated ghee to TTD.

Speaking to TNIE, police officials said that according to the agreement the stock (Ghee) receiver (TTD) can file a criminal case against the supplier when there is any violation of the agreement between both parties.

Chief Minister N Chandrababu Naidu's disclosure a few days ago that animal fat was found in the ghee supplied for making Tirumala Laddu, kicked up a nationwide debate.

TTD Executive Officer J Shyamala Rao in a press conference had said the lab tests have revealed the presence of animal fat and lard in chosen samples of ghee supplied by AR Dairy. However, the dairy firm denied the allegations and said that its product samples have been duly cleared by authorities certifying their quality.

In its complaint, TTD said, it purchases ghee for preparation of Swamivari Laddu and other prasadams as per Dittam.

"We expect values, quality, and authenticity and we were disheartened to discover that the ghee supplied by A R Dairy Food Private Limited, Dindigul, recently did not meet the expected standards.

Ghee is an essential part of the preparation of Swamivari Laddu and other Prasadams as per Dittam, and its quality directly affects both health, religious sentiments, and beliefs of crores of devotees of Lord Sri Venkateswara.

Adulterated ghee not only compromises taste, but can also pose serious health risks to devotees. We were made to believe that A R Dairy Food Private Limited, Dindigul has been maintaining strict quality control measures to ensure that their products meet safety and quality standards; but, the sample results were otherwise," the complaint read.

Jagan to visit Tirumala on Sep 27

Vijayawada: The YSRC party president and former Chief Minister YS Jagan Mohan Reddy is set to visit Tirumala on September 27 and offer prayers at Lord Venkateswara Temple on September 28. His visit to Tirumala attains significance amid the Tirumala Laddu Row. The YSRC has urged devotees across the state to participate in pujas to be performed in the temples across the state on September 28 for the sanctity of Tirumala. The party leaders criticized TDP chief Naidu for making baseless allegations that animal fat was mixed with the ghee used in the preparation of the Laddu.

TTD priests undergo laddu making training

Mysuru: Over 12 priests from Tirumala Tirupati Devastanams (TTD) underwent training in laddu making at the Central Food Technological Research Institute in Mysuru. The priests' team attended theory classes in the traditional food and nutrition department and in sensory sciences on using colours, quality and other factors. A demonstration was also held for the team on laddu making. Due to non-availability of a sensory science department, the TTD had to send the priests the city of palaces to undergo laddu making training once in every two-three years. CFTRI officials clarified that they have not given report on the quality of Laddu during the recent controversy.

Minor girl gangraped twice by 5

PRASANJEET SARKAR
@ Rourkela

ROURKELA was rocked by yet another case of sexual assault as an adolescent girl was allegedly gangraped by five miscreants at two separate places on the night of September 22 (Sunday) in what is a grim pointer to the deteriorating law and order.

The victim had been to a bar and restaurant at Civil Township within RN Pali police limits where two miscreants raped her. Another miscreant later joined the two in the heinous crime, police said. However, the girl's ordeal did not end there as she was dumped on the road when two other miscreants picked her up in a motorcycle and raped her near the library and defunct millet cafe along ring road opposite the administrative building of RSP within Plant Site police limits.

The second crime spot was developed under the city beautification project two years back and is hardly 50 metre from the busy ring road. Three persons have been detained by Rourkela and are currently being interrogated.

Victim's father in the complaint stated that the girl had left home on Sunday evening saying she was going to a shopping mall, said DIG Brijesh Kumar Rai who officiates as Rourkela SP.

The incident occurred within 24 hours of the gangrape of two minors in the steel city on Friday.

The case came to light after the victim's father lodged a complaint on Tuesday.

DNA tests to confirm skelletal identity

"I learnt about the truck going missing on the evening of July 16, and appealed to the DC the following day. Rescue operations began immediately, but the weather was a big hurdle. Five days ago, the rescue operations resumed. I was very hopeful that Arjun might be alive, but this is a big tragedy for me and his family. He was very loyal," he rued.

The wreckage, which was lifted out of the water, is in a very bad state. "The state of the cabin reflects the severity of the landslide," said the official. This finding has come as a relief to the district administration, which was under pressure from the Kerala Government.

"We started rescue operations to trace the missing persons, but were deterred by inclement weather. We continued our operations by getting a dredger and a barge earlier this week. Along with the truck's wreckage, we have found skeletal remains of a person, who could be Arjun. But this can only be confirmed following a DNA test, after which the body will be handed over to family members," Lakshmi Priya told TNIE.

The DC added that meanwhile, search for Jagannath Naik and Lokesh Naik, who are also missing since the incident, will continue for the next five days. "If we are unable to trace them, death certificates will be issued to family members and compensation will be awarded," she said.

Arjun, along with his truck, had gone missing on July 16, when the landslide occurred at Shirur. A search operation was immediately initiated, but could not be continued due to heavy rainfall. The third phase of rescue operations began earlier this week, where the team managed to recover an engine, which belonged to a gas tanker. However, the cabin of the truck was recovered on Wednesday.

As per the district administration, the landslide has so far claimed 11 lives, of which nine bodies have been recovered.

3 steel majors to fix new crest gates for TB dam

KIRAN BALANNANAVAR
@ Hosapete

AFTER the state government announced reinstallation of all 33 crest gates of the Tungabhadra dam, authorities have claimed that they don't have any worry about sourcing iron metal for the work.

It was because of the confidence the authorities have on three steel companies in the area as they earlier helped the administration to fix the crest gate issue. Now, sources said the JSW steel plant, located in the undivided Ballari district, will play a major role in providing iron for the crest gate reinstallation project. Two other companies, Narayana and Hindusthan Engineering Works, are also ready to lend a helping hand. An expert team had installed a temporary stoplog gate after the TB dam crest gate was broken and washed away in the river on August 10. The installation was done within a week and it was because three companies, especially JSW Steel Plant, played a major role in providing the huge metal. Now, the company showed interest in helping TB dam authorities. The TB dam authority is waiting for the official announcement of installation of the new crest gates. Four days ago during the bagina offering programme to the dam, Chief Minister Siddaramaiah promised farmers that the dam crest gates installation work will be started soon. DyCM and Water Resources Minister D K Shivakumar announced that within this year-end, the work will be finished.

Senior official, TB Dam Board, told TNIE that a committee was formed to study the present condition of the Tungabhadra dam and submitted a report recently and as per the report, the installation of new crest gates for the dam is necessary. CM Siddaramaiah also announced that action will be taken regarding the new crest gate installation. "The three companies, JSW Steel Plant, Narayana and Hindusthan Engineering Works did a great job after the TB dam crest gate no 19 was broken. The 24x7 work by these companies helped install the temporary stoplog gate and the work was finished in a week. Hopefully, as per the latest technology new crest gates will be built," he added.

Rajiv Gandhi varsity to be shifted to Ramanagara in phases: DyCM

Bengaluru: Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar on Wednesday announced that the Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences, currently located in Bengaluru's Jayanagar, would be relocated to its new campus in Ramanagara in phases. He said that the government has decided to resubmit an application to the National Medical Commission for the establishment of a medical college in Kanakapura. The previous application was rejected due to a lack of basic amenities.

K'taka good for health tourism: DK Shivakumar

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

"KARNATAKA is an important health tourism centre in India, and has more than 70 medical colleges, the highest number in the country," Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar said. He spoke after inaugurating Medicover Hospital's 300-bed facility in Whitefield on Wednesday.

Every year, 13,000 students take up medical education in Karnataka. More than 1 lakh paramedical personnel are being trained, Shivakumar said, adding that there are many opportunities in the medical field in Bengaluru. "After Andhra Pradesh and Maharashtra, Medicover Hospital has expanded its network in Karnataka and opened state-of-the-art treatment facilities. There are 24 hospitals and the management has employed 14,000 staffers," Shivakumar said.

The hospital, with a Rs 120 crore investment backing, is spread over 2.50 lakh sqft. The facility will also feature advanced diagnostic facilities, said Dr Anil Krishna, chairman and MD of Medicover Group of Hospitals.

Assault case: Cop to undergo narco, polygraph test

ASISH MEHTA @ Bhubaneswar

AMIDST nation-wide outrage, the former inspector-in-charge of the police station, where the army officer and his fiancée were allegedly assaulted and humiliated in Bhubaneswar, gave his consent before a court to undergo narco analysis, brain mapping and polygraph tests on Wednesday.

The tests will be conducted at the State Forensic Science Laboratory in Gujarat's Gandhinagar.

The Crime Branch of Odisha Police, investigating into the sensitive case, approached the SDJM court in Bhubaneswar seeking permission to carry out all three tests of Dinakrushna Mishra, the former IIC of Bharatpur police station in the state capital.

Mishra appeared before the court where he was explained the purpose of the proceedings and its legal consequences.

Ilayaraja, A R Rahman to enthral music aficionados at Yuva Dasara

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Mysuru

MYSURU is gearing up for an unforgettable Yuva Dasara this year, with the long-awaited arrival of musical legends Ilayaraja and A R Rahman, set to perform at the event from October 6 to 10 at the Uthanahalli Grounds. After years of fans' demands, these iconic musicians will finally grace the stage, making this year's celebration even more special.

Alongside them, renowned artistes like Shreya Ghoshal, Badshah, and Ravi Basrur of KGF fame are also expected to perform during the five-day event, turning the Yuva Dasara 2024 into a grand spectacle.

However, the excitement over these performances comes with a significant price tag. While one lakh people are expected to attend which is free, the Yuva Dasara subcommittee and the district administration has decided to introduce special VIP seating arrangements near the stage, with tickets priced at a steep ₹8,000 for the premier gallery and ₹5,000 for the second gallery. This is for the first time such a ticket is introduced to attend the Yuva Dasara. Previously, those with VIP passes and gold card were allowed to get seated in the premier gallery.

USE JOB MAPPING INDEX TO ENSURE SAFETY OF MIGRANTS

CREATION of jobs is a priority for the government. To plan for it more scientifically, the Union ministry of labour and employment is developing an Occupational Shortage Index (OSI) to track demand and supply of both white- and blue-collar workers in each state. The parameters will include the different categories of employment available, broken down by region. The index will also track changes in wage levels and highlight the shortage or excess of labour supply. Giving weights to various variables, a high OSI rank would indicate labour shortage. A low rank, on the other hand, would indicate a labour surplus and poorer wages.

If the experiment takes off, this mapping of labour demand for particular occupations and regions will benefit all stakeholders. Entrepreneurs can use the data to set up units where talent is available; workers looking for jobs can take an informed decision based on where wages are on the rise. Governments, too, can improve decision-making and develop information channels to guide workers, so that they get the best deal. The new initiative has to be seen in the context of rising youth unemployment. In the latest Periodic Labour Force survey, for the July 2023-June 2024 period, the unemployment rate for those aged 15 to 29 rose to 10.2 percent from 10 percent in 2022-23.

Even without a scientific guide, India has always had robust labour migration loosely regulated by demand and supply. For instance, Punjab has faced a shortage of farm hands for years and has been served by steady migration from Jharkhand and Odisha. Some older surveys indicate inter-state migration was 9-10 million a year. The 2011 Census pegs the total number of internal migrants in the country at a staggering 139 million. Though necessary to turn the wheels of the local economy, migrant workers face discrimination, wage exploitation and lack of welfare support. They often become targets of sons-of-the-soil agitations. Some 50,000-80,000 migrant workers fled Gujarat in 2018 after they were relentlessly attacked following the arrest of a migrant worker for allegedly raping a 14-year old girl. Considering the size of the shifting populations and the problems they face, the government must also track these migratory groups to ensure welfare support and keep them from becoming victims of human trafficking. The laws on the subject are well spelt out. Close monitoring is what is needed.

CIVIC AUTHORITIES MUST BE SUED FOR NEGLIGENCE

YOUNG Niranjan paid with his life when the gate of a public playground in Bengaluru collapsed on him as he attempted to open it and wheel in his bicycle. The 11-year-old lay bleeding under the high wrought-iron gate and later succumbed to head injuries. The government rushed in with band-aid measures like promising a thorough investigation, ₹10 lakh in compensation for the family, and support for his sister's fees. Investigation showed that the gate, installed four years ago, had heavily rusted. The tragedy raises a few questions: why are gates to parks and playgrounds closed during the day and why are periodic infrastructure checks not undertaken? The Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike has suspended the engineers in charge of the playground, a committee of engineers has been constituted to investigate negligence in work, and a report is expected in a week. Yet, not much systemic change can be expected if we are to go by earlier tragedies.

This was not a first for Bengaluru. Citizens, especially children, have become victims of faulty infrastructure like low-hanging power cables, shaky walls, falling rods and open drains. Vikram, a 7-year-old, was crushed under a stone bird bath in Lalbagh in 2016; 17-year-old Sanjana was buried alive when a college wall collapsed in Hebbal in 2010. Years have passed, but no one has been held responsible for these tragedies. Munirathna, the contractor responsible for building the wall that killed Sanjana, is now an MLA. The Lokayukta report held the contractor and officers responsible, but no action was taken.

It's deplorable that once such incidents fade from public memory, no action is taken against the corrupt officials, contractors and politicians involved. The malaise of 'percentage commission' is the bane of public projects—the 'cuts' that line pockets leave meagre funds for quality work. Last year, contractors exposed the '40 percent commission' culture of the previous BJP government, though it is well-known that corruption is part of every dispensation. How will the government provide a safe civic environment for its citizens, especially in places frequented by children? If the Niranjans and Sanjanas are to get justice and such accidents are to be prevented, we need a strong citizen-friendly legal system that encourages affected citizens to sue the civic authorities and not wait for the government to act.

QUICK TAKE

CONSERVATIVE AND LIBERAL BRAINS

AS social scientists keep scratching their heads about what pushes people to the political right or left, biologists have teased out a relevant insight. Researchers the Netherlands and Greece, who examined MRI scans from nearly 1,000 people who had answered questionnaires on their political leanings, say it is reflected in the size of the amygdala, a part of the brain linked to threat perception, with conservatives showing slightly larger dimensions. It broadly agreed with a 2011 study that, interestingly, actor Colin Firth had commissioned in the UK. Sociobiology is a fascinating frontier of human understanding, but scientists warn against misconceptions and stereotypes while drawing conclusions from such findings.

Our ageing population is a resource and a responsibility. Apart from strengthening elders' care infrastructure, we must innovate to engage them economically and socially

PREPARING TO REAP INDIA'S SILVER DIVIDEND

POONAM MUTTREJA

Executive Director, Population Foundation of India

SOURAV ROY

THE recent extension of the Ayushman Bharat health insurance scheme to include coverage for the elderly marks a significant step in India's efforts to address the needs of its ageing population. However, we must view this as just the beginning of a larger conversation about achieving the 'silver dividend'—the potential opportunities and challenges associated with an ageing society. As India's demographic profile shifts, the policies and frameworks must evolve to ensure the elderly are not only cared for but also empowered to contribute to society. If we plan well, we can convert a potential disaster into a significant opportunity.

India's population is set to age rapidly in the coming decades, with the proportion of those over 60 expected to double by 2050, according to the UN Population Fund. This is not unique to India. Many countries in the west and Asia, like Japan, are facing the implications of a rapidly ageing population. The silver dividend refers to the potential economic and social benefits of an ageing society, particularly if elderly individuals can remain active and engaged in economic, social and familial roles.

It is important to realise that reaping the silver dividend requires a robust policy framework that extends beyond healthcare. Over 40 percent of the elderly in India are in the poorest wealth quintile. Such levels of poverty are likely to affect their quality of life. As people live longer, their healthcare needs become more complex. The need for comprehensive geriatric care, including specialised treatments for chronic diseases, mental health support and facilities for palliative care is likely to grow. India currently faces a shortage of trained professionals across the health system—a gap that needs to be addressed urgently.

The Centre first came out with a National Policy for Older Persons in 1999. One of its main components is to promote family-based care. The policy also seeks to engage voluntary organisations in complementing family care and extending support to vulnerable elderly individuals. However, its implementation, particularly in rural regions, has been limited if not missing, underscoring the need for broader initiatives to meet the diverse physical, psychological and social needs of elderly people, especially from marginalised communities.

In addition to expanding healthcare services, improving the accessibility and quality of existing infrastructure is critical. Many elderly people, especially in rural areas, struggle to access healthcare due to poor transportation and inadequate facilities. Enhancing the reach of services such as telemedicine, mobile clinics and community health programmes will be key. It is also important to adopt a holistic approach that includes social security, economic engagement, and support for family structures.

Economic insecurity remains one of the most pressing concerns. The lack of appropriate pension schemes and adequate savings forces many to rely on their families, which may not always be viable. Approximately 90 percent of workers are in the informal sector, which offers no social protection for older persons. Policymakers should consider expanding pension schemes, especially for those in the unorganised sector, to provide a steady retirement income.

Creating age-friendly cities is essential to ensuring the elderly can live independent and dignified lives. Urban planning must include accessible public spaces, pedestrian-friendly roads and public transportation systems that cater to the needs of older adults. Housing policies that support the development of senior-friendly communities and public buildings equipped with ramps, elevators and seating areas are vital.

One way to harness the silver dividend is to enable the elderly to remain economically active. Policies that promote flexible work arrangements, part-time jobs and community-based work can provide avenues for older adults to contribute their skills and experience. This not only supplements their income but also fosters a sense of purpose and community involvement.

In India, family members, particularly women, often bear the primary responsibility of caring for the elderly, impeding their workforce participation. To support caregivers, policymakers need to introduce measures such as caregiver allowances, training programmes, and respite care services. Providing financial incentives and mental health support for caregivers can help mitigate strain.

India's demographic transition is not uniform. States like Kerala and Tamil Nadu are further along than states like Uttar Pradesh and Bihar. This means policies must be tailored to the specific needs of each region. In states with a more advanced ageing population, there is an immediate need to develop comprehensive elderly care services, strengthen social security mechanisms and create job opportunities suitable for older adults. Kerala's government has been aware of this and programmes for the elderly have made a welcome beginning.

Conversely, in states where the population is younger, policymakers should start investing in education and health infrastructure that will support their population in the future.

Countries like Japan offer valuable lessons. With one of the most rapidly ageing populations in the world, Japan has implemented extensive measures to address its population's needs. The country has a comprehensive health insurance system that covers most medical expenses for the elderly. It also promotes active ageing by encouraging older adults to engage in community activities and part-time work.

Similarly, several Western nations have developed robust social security systems, public pensions and community-based care models. These systems include initiatives like elder-friendly housing, accessible transportation and financial support for caregivers. India can draw on these experiences to inform its policies and create a more caring and supportive environment.

The joint family has been the traditional system of elderly care in India. But migration and a shift to nuclear families, has slowly shaken it up.

Recognising the diverse needs of India's elderly population is vital. Tailored, region-specific policies that address these varied needs will be key. The ageing report highlights the lack of credible data on various issues. More could be done by including questions on emerging issues related to older people in upcoming data collection exercises of the National Sample Survey, National Family Health Survey and Census.

While India has been known as a culture that supports the elderly, this should not mean the government can abdicate its responsibility to ensure healthy and dignified lives, especially for its senior citizens.

A NEW PARTNERSHIP WITH MIDDLE EARTH

CHANDRAJIT BANERJEE

Director General, Confederation of Indian Industry

AS many as 28 nations bordering the Mediterranean Sea were recently represented in a new partnership between India and the region. Businesses from both sides explored potential cooperation in defence production, maritime and manufacturing, among others.

Ancient synergies have marked the traditional relationship between India and countries on the Mediterranean rim. The Mediterranean is a historically significant region that has facilitated land and maritime trade between the East and West for millenniums. A diverse region spread across the three continents of Europe, Asia and Africa, the 28 countries stand at different levels of economic development.

Together, they comprise a critical group facilitating approximately 25 percent of global maritime trade. The sea economies have a collective GDP of approximately $10.5 trillion. India's total trade with the region was about $76.2 billion in 2023-24 across three major sub-regions of Mediterranean Europe, West Asia and North Africa.

Similarly, India has also played a crucial role in facilitating global trade with its central location in the Indo-Pacific. As India becomes a $5 trillion economy in the coming years and a leading global growth engine, it seeks to build new relationships in the world. It is in this context that India emerges as a crucial partner and friend of the Mediterranean nations. A continuation of India and the Mediterranean's historic bilateral trade ties would be a fruitful partnership for both regions. This is set to emerge as a multidimensional cooperation agenda, embracing various sectors.

To begin with, one key initiative to facilitate the partnership is the India-Middle East-Europe Economic Corridor (IMEC). Announced during the 2023 G20 Summit held in New Delhi, IMEC is envisaged as a dedicated trade corridor linking India and the Mediterranean economies through a combination of land and sea routes. Converging technology and sustainability-led practices, it promises to significantly improve the connectivity and commerce between India and the Mediterranean, and will increase prosperity in both regions.

The IMEC is expected to build multimodal transport infrastructure, including ports and railways, to enhance trade. Alongside, the region would also create industrial infrastructure to attract global value chains. Such proposed construction activity will benefit businesses of both sides.

Second, as two economic regions with significant presence in maritime trade, the blue economy emerges as a vital cooperation sector between India and the Mediterranean nations. The strategic location of Indian and Mediterranean ports makes them key facilitators of global commerce. Joint development of maritime infrastructure along the coasts of both the Mediterranean Sea and Indian Ocean could deepen ties, cultivate value chains for manufactured goods and improve the efficiency of the IMEC. The two sides can also work together in shipping and ship construction. Fisheries, marine biology and research, and sustainability of coastal regions are other areas where the two can collaborate.

ALEXANDRIA PORT AUTHORITY

Mediterranean ports like Alexandria have facilitated trade between the East and West for millenniums. The 28 countries on the Mediterranean rim account for a quarter of global maritime trade today. India's synergies with the region include infrastructure, energy and tech

Third, as digitalisation and industry 4.0 technologies emerge as key components of global information, partnerships between Indian and Mediterranean countries can be envisaged. India and the Mediterranean could jointly cooperate on introducing and developing a payment interface like UPI, leveraging the strength of the India stack for sectors such as e-commerce and fintech.

Similarly, India and the Mediterranean could collaborate on an integrated digital corridor and increase undersea telecommunications connectivity.

Fourth, India and the Mediterranean nations must converge collaborations on energy security and sustainable energy. Under the National Green Hydrogen Mission and Production Linked Incentive Scheme on High Efficiency Solar PV Modules, India and the Mediterranean can work together on manufacturing and introducing clean energy into their energy mixes.

Fifth, with geopolitical instability as a global challenge to commerce, multilateral industrial defence partnerships could be catalysed. India and the Mediterranean should pursue joint manufacturing and tech transfer agreements under the Make in India initiative to diversify industrial defence supply chains and improve security.

Sixth, Mediterranean companies have significant opportunities to invest in India and use it as a manufacturing hub for not only the Indian market but also markets in the Indo-Pacific region, and, potentially, the world. Similarly, Indian companies can form joint ventures with Mediterranean businesses to integrate themselves into supply chains and access their markets.

Seventh, both regions enjoy immense potential for tourism linkages. Their historical connection can attract tourists in both directions. Along with this, tourist infrastructure, skill development, and cruise tourism can be areas of engagement.

Eighth, with India and the Mediterranean having significant urban populations, urban infrastructure and circular economy practices emerge as a mutual need to meet sustainability goals and combat climate change. Programmes such as India's Smart Cities mission offer significant opportunities for Indian and Mediterranean businesses to invest and develop technologies to promote sustainable urban development.

India and the Mediterranean are two regions that historically exchanged technology, currency and culture and, within the recent geopolitical shifts, the revitalisation and renewal of this relationship can offer a significant platform for stability and greater prosperity of the world.

Old-age homes

Ref: More for elder care beyond health cover (Sep 25). Beyond healthcare, elders need support, men more than women. Women can get the support of her children in the evening of their life. Less said about the agony of a widower at the hands of daughters-in-law, the better. The government should open old-age homes in all the districts to help the aged.

NR Ramachandran, Chennai

Taxing pensioners

The editorial has rightly spoken of emulating innovations from the Netherlands and Japan. Geriatric care includes both medical and non-medical care. For India to have more for elder care beyond health cover, a step in the right direction would be to take pensioners out of the direct income tax basket.

Election costs

Ref: The difficult questions one election plan raises (Sep 25). 'One nation, one election' has raised questions on the disbalancing federal structure of the nation. The 2024 polls cost nearly ₹1.34 lakh crore. Universal adult franchise is the spirit of democracy, but citing taxpayer's money, the government may devise mechanisms of cost-reduction, beginning with minimising re-polls due to fallacies.

Aparna Vats, Bengaluru

Diverting attention

There are more questions not answered by the Ramnath Kovind-led Committee, the Election Commission, or the government, which is possibly aware of the impossibility of the proposal. It is, after all, an effort to keep the nation diverted from burning issues like Manipur, J&K and food inflation.

A G Rajmohan, Anantapur

Logistical hurdles

Implementing "One Nation, One Election" in India is a complex challenge due to the country's vast population and logistical hurdles. Elections involve significant state resources, especially in areas affected by naxalism and regions like Jammu & Kashmir, Chhattisgarh, and West Bengal. Ensuring security and managing distorted logistics at polling stations will be critical for success.

EAM says relationship between two Asian nations has considerable impact on the world

India-China ties key to future of Asia: Jaishankar

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

THE relationship between India and China is crucial for the future of Asia, said S Jaishankar, External Affairs Minister. He emphasized that the relationship between the nations will impact not only Asia but perhaps the future of the world.

Jaishankar was speaking at the Asia Society Policy Institute in New York on Tuesday. India has long pursued the 'Act East' policy with ASEAN at its centre. But during the last decade, it has matured into something beyond the ASEAN.

"The arrival of Indo-Pacific as a strategic concept is actually the success of the 'Act East' policy and the extension of India's interests today all the way to Australia, which is for us today a very crucial Quad partner," the minister added.

Meanwhile, the EAM also spoke about the importance of India's ties with the Gulf which has again dramatically changed in the last decade. "I would particularly point to some interesting connectivity proposals and initiatives which are on the table, most notably the IMEC, the India-Middle East-Europe Economic Corridor. And I point to it because what it does is, in a way it connects the Atlantic to India, Europe through the Arabian Peninsula to India," he added.

India is also notwithstanding many challenges, trying to build the connectivity to the Pacific through Myanmar, which is called the Trilateral Highway.

'Peace process'

PM Modi, while in Kyiv, emphasised the peace process. While meeting President Zelenskky, he reaffirmed support for an early resolution of the conflict.

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

A day after meeting Prime Minister Narendra Modi in New York and deliberating on the resolution of conflict in Russia and Ukraine, President Zelenskky has invited India for the second peace summit.

"We have to prepare the second peace summit to end the war, and I invite all nations to join us in the process—those who respect the UN Charter. I have already invited India," said Zelenskky while addressing the United Nations Security Council in New York on Tuesday. Zelenskky invited China, Brazil, African nations, Latin America, the West Asia, Europe, and the Americas. "All are equally important without exceptions," he said.

"We want a peace that will last, and these nations know how to achieve it," he stated. PM Modi, while in Kyiv, also emphasised the peace process, and while meeting President Zelenskky, he reaffirmed support for an early resolution of the conflict.

"We are committed to implementing the outcomes of my visit to Ukraine last month to strengthen bilateral relations. We have reiterated support for early resolution of the conflict in Ukraine and restore peace and stability," PM Modi said after meeting President Zelenskky. The two leaders met for the third time in three months.

India is actively developing its relations and working to strengthen cooperation across various fields. It is also helping Ukraine rebuild its infrastructure.

Bharat is unstoppable, says PM on Make-in-India anniv

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @ New Delhi

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi on Wednesday said India's flagship initiative 'Make in India' illustrates the "collective resolve" of Indians towards making the country a powerhouse of manufacturing. On the completion of 10 years of 'Make in India', Modi said the impact of the initiative shows that "Bharat is unstoppable."

"I compliment all those who are tirelessly working to make this movement a success over the last decade. 'Make In India' illustrates the collective resolve of 140 crore Indians to make our nation a powerhouse of manufacturing and innovation," the PM said in a post on X.

Modi had conceptualised the initiative soon after coming into power in 2014 to promote India's manufacturing power in all sectors with an aim to reduce dependency on other countries. "It's noteworthy how exports have risen in various sectors, capacities have been built, and thus, the economy has been strengthened," he said. "The government of India is committed to encouraging 'Make in India' through all possible ways. India's strides in reforms will also continue. Together, we will build an Atmanirbhar'and Viksit Bharat!"

In another post on LinkedIn, the PM said, "It is the collective drive, relentless in nature, which has transformed a dream into a powerful movement. The impact of 'Make in India' shows that Bharat is unstoppable." Highlighting how 'Make in India' has boosted development, he said the number of mobile manufacturing units in the country has risen from two to over 200.

"Our mobile exports have skyrocketed from a mere ₹1,556 crore to an astounding ₹1.2 lakh crore... Today, 99% of mobile phones used in India are made in India. We've become the second-largest mobile manufacturer globally," he said.

The PM also cited India's growth in steel industry, semiconductors and other sectors. "Our semiconductor manufacturing sector has attracted investments worth over ₹1.5 lakh crore, with five plants approved that will have a combined capacity of more than 7 crore chips per day," he said, adding that defence production exports have soared from ₹1,000 crore to ₹21,000 crore.

Modi highlighted that India has become a net exporter of finished steel. "In renewable energy, we are the 4th largest producer globally, with capacity increasing by 400% in just a decade. Our electric vehicle industry, practically non-existent in 2014, is now worth $3 billion," the PM wrote.

He further highlighted the growth of niche sectors, such as the toy industry, which has seen exports increase by 239% while imports have been halved, benefitting local manufacturers.

According to Modi, the 'Make in India' initiative has played a key role in empowering ordinary citizens, particularly in the MSME sector. "It has given the poor the wings to dream big and aspire – it has given them the confidence that they can be wealth creators," he said.

The PM credited government measures like the Production Linked Incentive (PLI) schemes for driving thousands of crores in investment and creating millions of jobs.

Plans afoot to improve livelihood prospects of informal sector workers

PARVEZ SULTAN @ New Delhi

THE Centre is set to introduce a programme — aiming at 'appreciable improvement' in the livelihoods of vulnerable groups within the informal sector such as construction workers, gig workers, waste workers, care workers, domestic workers, and transportation workers — on the lines of National Urban Livelihoods Mission (NULM).

According to the officials, the workers engaged in precarious jobs with low wages, hazardous conditions, and limited access to social protection will be the primary beneficiaries of the new scheme. A pilot spanning over three months to ensure effective implementation will be launched on October 1 in 25 cities; industrial hubs, migrant centres, aspirational districts, and port towns.

The pilot aims to break the cycle of poverty by providing financial assistance, social protection such as health and insurance cover, access to credit for micro-enterprises and fostering innovation and collaborations, said officials.

The Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs (MoHUA) recently organised a workshop during which deliberations were held on the contours of pilot implementation of a proposed new programme; various aspects of poverty in urban areas, methods that can be adopted to address the same and to sensitize the states or urban local bodies.

Speaking at the workshop, secretary, MoHUA Srinivas Katikithala said, "Urbanisation provides various opportunities and there is a need to harness these opportunities through innovative thinking so that the urban poor, particularly the vulnerable groups, including youths can get access to better opportunities."

The directors of state missions, Municipal Commissioners and city representatives of 25 cities with senior officials attended the workshop.

Dubey seeks probe into 1.25 crore feedbacks given to JPC on Waqf Bill

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @ New Delhi

RAISING concern over the staggering 1.25 crore submissions received by the Joint Parliamentary Committee reviewing the Waqf (Amendment) Bill, BJP MP Nishikant Dubey, also a member of the JPC, has called for a home ministry probe, including into possible role of Pakistan's ISI and China.

In a letter to committee chairperson Jagdambika Pal, he said the investigation must also cover the possible roles of fundamentalist organizations and individuals like radical Islamic preacher Zakir Naik.

Expressing alarm at the sheer volume of responses, Dubey said the geographical-origins of these submissions need immediate attention, claiming that it is statistically improbable that such an overwhelming volume response could emerge organically from within India alone.

Pointing out probable risks to national sovereignty, he cautioned in the letter that coordinated foreign interventions suspiciously seem posing a serious challenge to India's parliamentary democracy. "I believe it is vital that the committee addresses these concerns head-on to ensure the integrity and independence of our legislative process," the MP said.

Dubey further pointed out the potential involvement of individuals like Zakir Naik, a fugitive known for fanning "extremist views", and also doubted that Naik's network might be leveraging the Waqf Bill discussions to further destabilize Indian society. Dubey said, "I believe it is vital the committee addresses these concerns head-on to ensure integrity and independence of our legislative process."

JPC will submit report on time, says Rijiju

Minority Affairs Minister Kiren Rijiju on Wednesday expressed confidence that the JPC on the Waqf Bill will submit its report in the stipulated time. He said panel would fulfil the mandate of submitting its report before the last day of first week of winter session. "I feel the speed at which joint panel is functioning, the report will be tabled as stipulated" he said.

Noting that Article 105 of the Constitution guarantees the free and fair functioning of Parliament, including the operations of its committees, he said any attempt by external forces to manipulate the legislative process will be an attack on the very foundations of parliamentary system.

He said an investigation by the MHA is critical to preserving the fairness, integrity, and independence of the Waqf Bill deliberations. He emphasised the deliberations must proceed without the interference of outside influences that aim to destabilise, delay, and disrupt.

Amid Rahul poser, Kangana eats her words on farm laws

HARPREET BAJWA & PREETHA NAIR @ Chandigarh/ New Delhi

Kangana Ranaut

Rahul Gandhi

A day after BJP member of Parliament Kangana Ranaut's statement that the three controversial farm sector reform laws repealed in 2021 should be reinstated, made her party squirm and the Opposition go ballistic, the actor and newbie neta was forced to to eat her words. "I withdraw my remarks. I have to keep in mind that I am not just an artist, but a party worker of the BJP. My opinion should not be personal and my actions should align with the party's stand. I regret and take my words back," she said.

Kangana emphasised the importance of respecting PM Narendra Modi's decision to repeal the laws that were intended to benefit farmers but faced intense opposition. Earlier in the day, Leader of Opposition in the Lok Sabha Rahul Gandhi demanded an explanation from Modi whether he was opposed to the comments or is he "up to some mischief".

"BJP people keep testing ideas. They ask someone to voice an idea among the people and wait for the reaction... Modi ji you must clarify, whether you are against this or you are again up to some mischief," he asked. "Who is deciding the government's policy? A BJP MP or Prime Minister Modi?" he poked. Rahul said the Opposition INDIA bloc will oppose any move to bring back the black farm laws. "Will the three farm laws be revived or not? If you do so, I guarantee you that the INDIA bloc will together stand against it," he warned. The extent of damage Kangana's loose talk could cause in poll-bound Haryana is unclear, but farmers form a sizeable section of the voters in the state.

BJP spokesperson Gaurav Bhatia distanced the party from Kangana's statement, saying it was her personal comment. "She is not authorised to make such a statement on behalf of the BJP, and it does not depict the party's view on the farm bills. We disapprove of this statement," he said.

Antacid Pan D, Paracetamol, Shelcal among over 50 drugs fail quality test

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @ New Delhi

OVER 50 medicines, including diabetes, hypertension, vitamins, calcium D3 supplements, bacterial infections, and acid reflux tablets, failed the quality tests by the drug regulator. According to the Drugs Standards Control Organisation (CDSCO), which issued a 'Not of Standard Quality (NSQ)' alert for August, some of the top selling medicines manufactured by top pharma firms.

The medicines that were flagged as NSQ were paracetamol tablets 1p500 mg, anti-diabetic drug Glimepiride, blood pressure medicine Telma H (Telmisartan 40 mg), acid reflux medicine Pan D, and Calcium C and D3 tablets Shelcal, bacterial infections medication Cefixime Oral Suspension IP.

Among the 53 medicines that failed the quality check also includes Metronidazole, the widely used drug for treating stomach infections. It was produced by PSU Hindustan Antibiotic Limited. Shelcal, distributed by Torrent Pharmaceuticals and manufactured by Uttarakhand-based Pure & Cure Healthcare, also failed the test. Alkem Health Science's antibiotics Clavam 625 and Pan D were also found to be spurious by a state-run laboratory. The Kolkata lab found Hyderabad-based Hetero's Cepodem XP 50 dry suspension substandard. It is prescribed for children with severe bacterial infections.

Karnataka Antibiotics & Pharmaceuticals Ltd Paracetamol tablets were flagged for quality concerns. Sun Pharma Laboratories Ltd, whose Ursocol 300, which dissolves certain gallstones and prevents them from forming, was also found to be spurious. Multiple batches of Telmisartan, which were manufactured by Haridwar-based Life Max Cancer Lab, failed the quality test.

CDSCO issued two lists of drugs that failed quality tests. One contains 48 popular drugs, and the second has replies from the pharma firms whose medicines failed these tests. CDSCO in August banned over 156 fixed-dose drug combinations that are "likely to involve risk to humans". These medicines included popular fever drugs, painkillers and allergy tablets. Since 2014, it has banned 499 FDCs.

25% drop in out-of-pocket health expense in 10 yrs

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @ New Delhi

THE total health expenditure in India has risen to 3.8% of the GDP, still lower than the ten-year peak of 4%. Notably, out-of-pocket expenditure, which refers to payments made by individuals and families, has decreased from 64.2% in 2013-14 to 39.4% in 2021-22.

The National Health Accounts Estimates for 2020-21 and 2021-22 was released on Wednesday by the Union Health Ministry, which claim to be based on an enhanced methodology that provides a more comprehensive and precise account of the government's health expenditures.

Over the years, the government's contribution to health expenditures has increased significantly. Specifically, the government's share in health expenditures has risen from 1.13 per cent of the GDP in 2014-15 to 1.84 per cent in 2021-22.

Additionally, the share of government health expenditures in total health expenditures has also shown a significant increase, climbing from 29.0 per cent in 2014-15 to 48.0 per cent in 2021-22.

The component of private health insurance expenditure as a percentage of total spending has been going up consistently from 3.4 per cent in 2013-14 to 7.4 per cent in 2021-22.

The ministry said that the reduction in out-of-pocket expenses was partially due to an increase in social security spending on healthcare.

Dr V K Paul, Member (Health), NITI Aayog, said that "the methodology taken for these NHA estimates has improved over the last nine years and has resulted in a more robust and accurate account of the government's expenditure on Health."

"The decline in Out-of-Pocket expenditure out of Total Health Expenditure from 64.2% in 2013-14 to 39.4% in 2021-22 reflects a very positive indicator," he said.

"A robust social security mechanism ensures that individuals will not face financial hardship and the risk of poverty as a consequence of accessing essential healthcare services. The share of social security expenditure includes government-funded health insurance and medical reimbursement to government employees," said a health ministry statement.

The proportion of total health expenditure allocated to social health insurance programs has shown significant growth, rising from 5.7 per cent in 2014-15 to 8.7 per cent in 2021-22. This increase reflects a substantial shift in funding towards social health insurance initiatives over the past few years.

Dr Paul also highlighted that "more than Rs 1 lakh crore savings have accrued from the Ayushman Bharat PMJAY" and "this has had a positive impact on the recent NHA estimates."

He also stated that other schemes like the Free Dialysis scheme, launched in 2015-16 has benefited 25 lakh people.

Union Health Secretary Apurva Chandra said that a substantial increase has been noticed in the health expenditure of the government while the out-of-pocket expenditure has come down which is a good sign.

He highlighted that the total health expenditure has also made a significant increase which reflects the emphasis of the government towards health.

The report provides a systematic description of the financial flows in India's health system by different sources, how the money is spent, how healthcare is provided, and the nature of healthcare services that are used.

Rahul: Will take to streets if statehood not restored

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

TAKING a tough stance on the statehood issue, Congress leader Rahul Gandhi on Wednesday asserted that if the BJP government does not restore statehood in Jammu and Kashmir, the opposition INDIA alliance would use all available means in Parliament and even take to the streets to push for the restoration of statehood.

Rahul addressed the poll rallies in Jammu and Sopore in north Kashmir in favour of party candidates, contesting the third and final phase of Assembly polls in J&K on October 1. The focus of Rahul's campaigning remained the restoration of statehood.

"It was for the first time in India's history that a state (J&K) was converted into a Union Territory. Earlier, UTs were converted into states, and were divided into more states. In Indian history, this happened for the first time state's rights were snatched. It should not have happened," the Congress leader stated.

On August 5, 2019, the Centre scrapped J&K's special status and bifurcated it into two Union Territories – Jammu and Kashmir (with legislature) and Ladakh (without legislature).

Rahul said the people of J&K were told that "you were not a state but a UT. The government will not be run by the CM and MLAs but by the L-G and the outside bureaucrats. We had thought that statehood would be restored before elections. It was the right option. Now that the elections are being held, we want that J&K's statehood to be restored as soon as possible."

If the BJP does not restore statehood for some reason, then when the INDIA alliance comes to power in Delhi, which is certain, the first thing it will do is restore statehood.

For the first time, Rahul has taken a tough stance during his election campaign for the J&K polls and warned of street agitation if statehood was not restored to it.

The PM and Home Minister during their rallies said statehood would be restored only by BJP government.

It was for the first time in India's history that a state (J&K) was converted into a Union Territory. Earlier, UTs were converted into states, and were divided into more states. — Rahul Gandhi, Cong leader

Modi: If voted to power, Cong will bring instability

As poll approaches, the Congress is losing hope, while the support for the BJP is increasing. Voting for the Congress is equivalent to jeopardizing state's stability and development — Narendra Modi, PM

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi on Wednesday launched a blistering attack on the Congress, warning that if the party comes to power, it could lead to the destruction of the state. As the October 5 Assembly polls draw near, the erosion of people's trust in the Congress is becoming more evident. However, the BJP is gaining a significant ground in the state, he added.

Addressing a rally at Gohana, Sonepat, Modi stated, "As the election approaches, the Congress is losing hope, while the support for the BJP is increasing by the day. Voting for the Congress is equivalent to jeopardizing the state's stability and development."

Referring to Karnataka Chief Minister Siddaramaiah's alleged role in the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) scam and his fight with his deputy for power, Modi said, "Similar situations have arisen in Congress-ruled states of Telangana and Himachal Pradesh. The party cannot carry out development works in Haryana. It can only halt development. They do not want peace but want to bring back terrorism and infiltration by revoking Article 370 in Jammu and Kashmir."

PM Modi said under the BJP government, Haryana has made place among top states in industry and agriculture sectors. "Today, the world's biggest companies are interested in setting up factories in India. When industrialization increases, its biggest benefit goes to poor, farmers and SCs," he said, adding that B R Ambedkar believed that in empowerment of SCs, industry plays a big role.

Taking a sideswipe at the Gandhi family, Modi said the Congress has handed over Haryana to middlemen (dalals) and son-in-laws (damads). It cannot protect the rights of SCs. "The Congress had given jobs to youngsters on the basis ofrecommendation or money. Corruption was evident in tender allotment during the Congress regime. I urge you to stop Congress from coming to power."

Modi to address Parivartan Yatra rally

Prime Minister Narendra Modi is likely to address a rally on the conclusion of BJP's 'Parivartan Yatra' in Jharkhand. According to state BJP functionaries, the party has sent a proposal for it and will start preparations for the same as soon as it gets approval from the center. Notably, to expose the failures of ruling JMM-led alliance in the state, Union Home Minister Amit had launched 'Parivartan Yatra' on September 20, which is being led by the top party leaders, both from inside and outside Jharkhand. Starting on September 20, Parivartan Yatra is to cover all six organizational divisions in Jharkhand, travelling 5,400 kms.

Voters aged 85 plus may also vote from home

For the first time in Jharkhand Assembly polls, voters aged 85 and above, as well as persons with disabilities (PwDs) with a 40% benchmark disability, will be given the option to vote from home. The home-voting facility is optional, and voters who wish to cast their ballot in person will receive necessary assistance at polling stations. A delegation of ECI led by Chief Election Commissioner Rajiv Kumar, which was on a two day visit to Jharkhand to review poll preparedness, also made it clear to central and state agencies that it is firmly committed for "zero tolerance towards use of money power".

Rao takes oath as CJ of Jharkhand High Court

Justice MS Ramachandra Rao on Wednesday took oath as the new Chief Justice of the Jharkhand High Court. Governor Santosh Gangwar administered him oath of office at the Raj Bhawan in Ranchi. Chief Minister Hemant Soren and acting Chief Justice Sujit Narayan Prasad were also present along with other judges and top bureaucrats of the state. Born on August 7, 1966 in Hyderabad, Justice Rao studied B.Sc. (Hons) (Mathematics) from Bhavans New Science College, Osmania University. He passed LLB from the University College of Law, Osmania University in Hyderabad in 1989. He was awarded the CVSS Acharyulu Gold Medal for securing the highest marks in final year LL.B.

Bombay HC questions cops on Badlapur assault accused death

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

PULLING up the Thane police, the Bombay High Court on Wednesday expressed concerns regarding the shooting of Akshay Shinde, the accused in the Badlapur school sexual assault case, stating that the incident could have been avoided, and emphasised the necessity for a fair and impartial probe.

Hearing the plea moved by Akshay Shinde's father, a division bench comprising Justices Revati Mohite Dere and Prithviraj Chavan also raised questions over the manner in which the shooting was executed.

The judges raised questions about the circumstances of the shooting, suggesting that it may have been preventable if police had attempted to subdue Shinde before the incident escalated. The bench said while it was not raising any suspicion at this stage, it was very hard to believe that Shinde managed to seize a pistol from a police officer and opened fire.

The bench also noted that the officer who shot at Shinde was a police inspector who has experience on how to react in such a situation. "Ordinarily, the retaliation would be on the leg or arm. Why directly on the head? Does he (police) not know where the shot has to be fired? It may have been spontaneous. The first reaction should have been to disarm him," the bench said. The court said it is not very easy to unlock and open fire from a pistol. They questioned the rationale behind shooting him in the head rather than aiming for a less lethal area, such as the legs or arms. "It is difficult to believe that Shinde could have seized a pistol from a police officer and fired it," said Justice Chavan, referencing his own experience with firearms.

Shinde's father demanded the registration of a case against the policemen who killed his son and asked for preserving CCTV footage as well. He requested the formation of a SIT to investigate the shooting, with oversight from the HC. The court said, "This cannot be termed as an encounter. This is not the encounter."

The court asked whether the scene where this incident occurred was sealed to prevent tampering. It also stressed the necessity for a fair and impartial investigation into the circumstances surrounding the shooting.

"If we find that the investigation is not conducted properly, we will be constrained to issue appropriate orders," the bench warned. The court scheduled the next hearing for October 3.

Panchayat polls in Punjab to be held on Oct 15

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

A total of 13,327 panchayats will go to polls in Punjab on October 15, State Election Commissioner Raj Kamal Chaudhary said on Wednesday, adding that nominations can be filed from September 27 to October 4, scrutiny on October 5 and withdrawal of nominations on October 7.

"There will be 19,110 polling booths and the expenditure limit for the sarpanches is ₹40,000 and for panches ₹30,000. Total voters are 1,33,97,932 and the polls will be held through ballot boxes and that their will be option for NOTA. Counting of votes will be done on the same day," he said, adding that each panchayat will have one sarpanach and 5-13 panches.

Chaudhary said that the poll panel has considered the harvesting season of paddy as it begins in October besides festival season while fixing the dates. He said the delay in holding panchayat polls was due to the lok sabha elections. The last panchayat elections were held on December 30, 2018.

He said 96,000 personnel will be deputed on election duty and 23 IAS/PCS officers would be appointed as observers in the districts to ensure smooth conduct of polls.

Phase II done, heartening to see Kashmiris cast vote, say foreign diplomats

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

THE second phase of polling for 26 assembly seats in J&K on Wednesday recorded a healthy 56.05% turnout, which could go up further.

While brisk polling took place in five districts, there were no long queues in Srinagar, where the poll percentage for eight seats stood at 29.24%. However, 4.41% more voters turned up to vote in Srinagar as compared to the Lok Sabha polls in April-May when the percentage was 24.83%.

A team of foreign diplomats visited a few polling stations and found it "heartening" to see Kashmiris casting their votes after 10 years.

US Deputy chief of Mission Jorgan K Andrews, who was among the visiting diplomats said, "It has been excellent and fascinating to see how India organises its elections and how thorough the preparations are. It has been very inspiring." It looks very healthy and democratic, he added. The turnout was good in the three violence-hit districts in the Jammu region Reasi (74.14%), Poonch (73.78%) and Rajouri (69.84%) Even Ganderbal (62.63%) and Budgam (61.31%) in the Kashmir region did well. "The Shri Mata Vaishno Devi seat in Reasi district recorded the highest voter turnout of 79.95%," informed J&K Chief Electoral Officer (CEO) P K Pole.

In Srinagar, which has remained a hot bed of separatist politics, people came out to vote for first Assembly polls without any poll boycott or militant threat. "It is first time that I am casting a vote. There are no jobs, power bills are very high and youth are falling to drugs. We hope that the elected government will provide some relief to the population," said Javed Ahmed, a resident of Nowhatta area of Srinagar.

Nowhatta was once a stronghold of militants and separatists where stone pelting used to take place every Friday.

CBI to court: Got enough evidence of tampering in RG Kar rape-murder case

SULAGNA SENGUPTA @ Kolkata

A special court in Kolkata on Wednesday denied bail to former RG Kar Medical College principal Sandip Ghosh and suspended police officer Abhijit Mondal, both arrested in connection with the rape and murder of a trainee doctor at the hospital, and sent them to judicial custody till September 30.

Since Ghosh and Mondal, former OC of Tala police station, were not cooperating with CBI officers, an extension of their custody was required, the central probe agency urged the court.

Sources in the CBI said the agency has received enough evidence on how Mondal tampered with evidence on the rape and murder of the 31-year-old postgraduate trainee doctor. They also came to know that the entire process before the post-mortem was controlled by the police station and the CCTV footage inside the police station on that day was also tampered.

Some records pertaining to the rape-murder case were "falsely created" and "altered" at the Tala police station, the CBI alleged.

The central probe agency has told the special court that it has seized CCTV footage of the police station which has been sent to the Central Forensic Science Laboratory (CFSL), Kolkata, for examination.

The CBI which interrogated Mondal and Ghosh in its custody informed the court that "new/additional" facts emerged in its probe showing that "some false records pertaining to the instant case were created/altered in Tala police station". A CBI officer said, "Both the accused facilitated cremation (of the victim's body) in a hurried manner while the family members specifically demanded a second autopsy."

The central probe agency had arrested Mondal on September 14, while Ghosh, who was already in judicial custody in a corruption case, was taken into custody in the rape and murder case on September 15. The CBI had arrested prime suspect Sanjay Roy on August 10 on the next day of the gruesome incident after "his role in the commission of crime had already emerged".

Trams—Kolkata does away with slice of history

SULAGNA SENGUPTA @ Kolkata

THE West Bengal government has decided to stop Kolkata's 150-year-old tram service in some parts of Kolkata due to vehicular traffic. Transport Minister Snehashish Chakraborty, however, said that no date has been fixed to discontinue the service.

"There is no date fixed to do so. We are not discontinuing tramways from today or tomorrow, we are aware of people's emotions. Moreover, the matter is also pending before the Calcutta High Court. We will abide by the court direction," Chakraborty said.

"As roads comprise only 6% of Kolkata's surface area and with increase in vehicular traffic, we have observed that trams cannot ply the roads along the same routes at the same time as it is leading to congestion," Chakraborty said.

"Tramways are leading to traffic jams and road accidents. It is also not economically viable. Only a stretch at Maidan, Esplanade and Khidirpur will remain," he added.

The HC, while hearing a PIL, had on December 11 last year suggested that a public-private partnership model can be used to restore and rejuvenate tramcar services in Kolkata.

Responding to a query, the minister said that the state government allows only those commercial vehicles to ply the roads that conform to the pollution norms and encourages the usage of electric vehicles, "which is yielding results".

Meanwhile, the city residents say that they are going to miss the heritage service, the slow moving tram runs in the city.

All the tram routes are being terminated, except for one. The route from Esplanade to Maidan will be operational as a joyride to experience. The stretch is picturesque, with stunning views of Victoria Memorial and lush greenery. The scenery is beautiful with kids playing cricket and football in Maidan. The white-blue colour trams has been a preferred mode of transport for a large number of people.

On February 24, 2023, Kolkata's iconic tram service celebrated 150 years. The first tram, drawn by horses, ran on February 24, 1873.

Sharply reacting to the state government's announcement, the Calcutta Tram Users Association (CUTA) said that it would hold demonstrations before five tram depots across the city in protest. Kaushik Das, an association member of CUTA, said, "If the government repairs and ensures regular upkeep of tramcars lying unused in several depots for several years, they can run the fleet in a smooth manner."

ISRAEL HITS 280 MORE HEZBOLLAH TARGETS, PREPS FOR GROUNDS OPS

50 killed in latest attacks on Lebanon; Biden warns that an all-out war is possible

TEL AVIV

ISRAELI army chief Lt. Gen. Herzi Halevi said Wednesday that the military is preparing for a possible ground operation in Lebanon as Hezbollah hurled dozens of projectiles into Israel, including a missile aimed at Tel Aviv that was the militant group's deepest strike yet.

Addressing troops on the northern border, Gen. Halevi said the latest Israeli airstrikes were designed to "prepare the ground for your possible entry and to continue degrading Hezbollah." In an apparent reference to the missile aimed at Tel Aviv, he said: "Today, Hezbollah expanded its range of fire, and later today, they will receive a very strong response. Prepare yourselves."

To achieve the goal of returning the displaced citizens of northern Israel to their homes, "we are preparing the process of a maneuver," he said.

Besides, the Israeli military activated reserve troops in response to rising tensions with the Hezbollah.

US President Joe Biden warned on Wednesday of the possibility of an "all-out war".

"An all-out war is possible," he told ABC. "What I think is, also, the opportunity is still in play to have a settlement that could fundamentally change the whole region."

Israel said Wendesday its air force had struck some 280 Hezbollah targets across Lebanon by early afternoon, including launchers used to fire rockets on the northern Israeli cities of Safed and Nahariya.

Israeli military officials said they intercepted Hezbollah's surface-to-surface missile, which marked a further escalation after Israeli strikes on Lebanon killed hundreds of people. The missile set off air-raid sirens in Tel Aviv and across central Israel. There were no reports of casualties or damage. The military said it struck the site in southern Lebanon where the missile was launched.

Smoke rises from Israeli airstrikes in the southern village of Kfar Rouman, seen from Marjayoun, south Lebanon on Wednesday | AP

Lebanese health minister said the Israeli strikes on Wednesday killed more than 50 people and left 220 others injured. That raised the death toll from the past three days to 615.

Hezbollah said it fired a Qader 1 ballistic missile targeting the headquarters of Israel's Mossad intelligence agency. The Israeli military said it was the first time a projectile fired from Lebanon had reached central Israel.

The UN said some 90,000 people had been displaced in Lebanon this week, as Israel pounded Hezbollah targets across the country and the Lebanese group strikes back.

Iran's supreme leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei said Israel's killing of top Hezbollah commanders couldn't bring the Iran-backed Lebanese militant group to its knees.

"Some of the effective and valuable forces of Hezbollah were martyred, which undoubtedly caused damage to Hezbollah, but this was not the sort of damage that could bring the group to its knees," he said in meeting with military personnel and veterans of the 1980-88 Iran-Iraq war. AP/AFP

Iran House blocks Sunni vice president appointment

TEHRAN

THE Iranian parliament on Wednesday blocked the appointment of a politician from the Sunni minority as vice president, media reported.

In August, President Masoud Pezeshkian had announced the appointment of Abdolkarim Hosseinzadeh as his vice president for rural development and disadvantaged areas, citing his "valuable experience".

But on Wednesday lawmakers voted against his resignation from parliament to take up the vice president post, the official IRNA news agency said.

"Parliament members voted 107 in favour, 129 against, and five abstentions out of the 247 representatives present," it added. Following the vote, parliament member Mehrdad Lahouti said the vote was meant to keep Hosseinzadeh in the legislature due to his "capabilities and experience".

"The MPs believe his presence in parliament would be more effective and useful," said Lahouti in remarks quoted by parliament news agency ICANA. He said the decision to bar Hosseinzadeh from resigning was "completely unrelated" to his being a Sunni.

Sunni Muslims account for around 10% of Iran's population, where the vast majority are Shiites and that branch of Islam is the official state religion. They have very rarely held key positions of power since the Islamic revolution in 1979. Iran has numerous vice presidents, who are tasked with leading organisations related to presidential affairs in the country.

A 44-year-old reformist, Hosseinzadeh has spoken out publicly on several occasions in defence of the rights of Iran's Sunnis. AFP

NEW FRANCE MINISTER TO TIGHTEN IMMIGRATION LAW

FRANCE's conservative interior minister on Wednesday vowed consequences after a Moroccan man suspected of murdering a 19-year-old university student and leaving her body in a Paris forest was arrested in Switzerland. A source close to the case identified the alleged attacker as a 22-year-old man of Moroccan nationality. Prosecutors have said the suspect had been previously convicted of rape and had been the subject of an order to leave France. The killing of the student is expected to further inflame political tensions in France where the newly installed right-wing government plans to crack down on immigration. "This is an abominable crime," said Interior Minister Bruno Retailleau. Retailleau, who on Monday took over from his predecessor Gerald Darmanin, vowed to boost law and order, tighten immigration legislation and make it easier to deport foreigners convicted of crimes. "It is up to us, as public leaders, to refuse to accept the inevitable and to develop our legal arsenal, to protect the French," he added. AFP

GST panel yet to decide insurance premium tax rate

Panel to meet on Oct 19, consensus on goods, services for gen public should have lower rates

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

THE Group of Ministers (GoM) on rate rationalisation in a meeting on Wednesday discussed rates of 85% of the items under GST, even though the talks on health and life insurance premiums remains unresolved. The general consensus of the meeting was that goods and services used by common people should have lower GST rates.

Speaking to TNIE, West Bengal finance minister Chandrima Bhattacharya, who is part of the GoM, said it is decided to cut the rate on education-related materials, including exercise books and pencils from 12% to 5%. The change is likely to provide relief to families and make educational resources more accessible.

Bhattacharya stated, "We all agreed that the rate on education-related material should be brought down. This is a step towards ensuring that education remains affordable for every child." The meeting addressed a proposed raise in rate on apparel priced above ₹1,000 from 12% to 18%. She voiced opposition to this proposal, arguing that it would adversely impact common citizens and textile industry, which employs many women in Bengal.

"The rate increase will affect common people and the industry which employs many women," she said, reinforcing the state's position against the hike. She said the talks on health and life insurance premiums remains unresolved and the issue will be revisited in next GoM meeting scheduled for October 19, with an additional follow-up on October 20 for remaining items. Currently, 18% GST is charged on health and life insurance premiums. The GST is structured into 4 tiers, with slabs set at 5%, 12%, 18%, and 28%. She said collective sentiment of the states, noting, "All states agreed that common people should not suffer due to rate increase. The states were of the view that their revenue should not get affected."

We all agreed that rate on education-related material should be brought down. This is a step towards ensuring that education remains affordable

Chandrima Bhattacharya, West Bengal FM

Other sources confirmed that the Centre wants to bring several items from under 18% to 12%. However, non-BJP ruled states and some north-eastern states are reluctant as their revenues may suffer. "There was a discussion to bring air conditioners under 18% from 28%, but many states, mainly Opposition-led states were unwilling," a source said on condition of anonymity.

Make in India fails to lift mfg share in GDP in 10 yrs

DIPAK MONDAL @ New Delhi

THE government has said it will take some time to build momentum in favour of manufacturing as the share of manufacturing in GDP remains below the 2013-14 levels even as the its Make in India programme completes 10 years.

The share of value addition by manufacturing sector is 15.9% in 2023-24 compared to 16.7% of GDP (in constant price) in 2013-14. The target of the government is to achieve 25% manufacturing share in GDP by 2030. It will take some time to build momentum, says DPIIT secretary Amardeep Singh Bhatia while addressing the media.

"In many places, the bottlenecks are not just of investment but also of technology. Investment should bring technology, build capacity and skills, and when all these come together the momentum is built," said Bhatia when asked about the failure of the Make in India to increase the share of manufacturing in GDP. The DPIIT secretary said the focus of the government is to bring in technology along with investments under the Make in India programme. The programme was launched in 2014 to raise share of manufacturing in GDP.

Various reform measures have been taken by the government under the programe. They include Semicon India programme with an outlay of ₹76,000 crore to give an impetus to semiconductor manufacturing; production-linked scheme for 14 manufacturing sectors; National Single Window Programme to integrate clearances from 32 ministries/departments and 29 states/UTs, facilitating rapid approvals; PM Gati Shakti National Master Plan to facilitate data-based decisions related to integrated planning of multimodal infrastructure, thereby reducing logistics cost; and National Industrial Corridor Development Programme.

On the question of the Indian manufacturing sector losing out to countries like Mexico, Vietnam and Bangladesh due to higher costs, Bhatia said that interaction with industry shows that cost at factory gate is same as these countries, however, India losses out to higher logistics cost. "The PM Gati Shakti scheme is aimed at bringing down the logistics cost," said the DPIIT Secretary.

Speaking on the PLI schemes introduced in 2020, Bhatia said so far ₹1.4 lakh crore investments have been made, manufacturing output worth ₹12 lakh crore achieved and 8.5 lakh jobs have been created, thanks to the PLI scheme. Goods exports of ₹4 lakh crore have been made by companies availing the scheme.

'Make in India imprints visible across sectors'

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi has said the imprint of 'Make in India' has become visible across sectors, including areas where 'we never even dreamt of making an impact'.

In a blog post on Linkedin, the PM has highlighted the transformation of manufacturing of electronics, defence, steel and toys. He said how in 2014, India had only two mobile manufacturing units, but today that number has risen to over 200. "Mobile exports have skyrocketed from ₹1,556 crore to ₹1.2 lakh crore – a 7500% rise. Today, 99% of mobile phones used in India are Made in India," said the PM pointing out that India has become the second-largest mobile manufacturer globally.

TRAI to explore regulation of OTT apps under Telecommunications Act

RAKESH KUMAR @ New Delhi

THE Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (TRAI) is set to release a consultation paper on pricing for satellite spectrum in the coming days, announced Chairman Anil Kumar Lahoti. While addressing the press, Lahoti also mentioned that TRAI will explore the regulation of OTT apps under the Telecommunications Act 2023.

"Our team was focused on recommending a new framework, and now we'll work on spectrum pricing recommendations," said Lahoti.

When asked about the timeline, Lahoti confirmed that the consultation paper would be floated shortly. Regarding the licensing of OTT communication apps such as WhatsApp, Telegram, and Skype, Lahoti clarified that these apps are not included in this consultation paper. Last week, TRAI released recommendations on the Framework for Service Authorisations under the Telecommunications Act, 2023, which excluded OTT communication apps from the new authorization regime.

The proposed framework introduces three categories of telecommunication service authorizations, aiming to achieve a 'One Nation - One Authorization' model through Unified Service Authorization.

"OTT was not part of this paper (Service Authorization Framework under the Telecommunications Act 2023). It is being discussed separately. Right now, we must prioritize spectrum pricing," said Lahoti.

Concerns were raised by telecom service providers about the potential implications of these recommendations if accepted by the Department of Telecommunications (DoT), particularly regarding the migration to a new licensing regime. Lahoti stated that there are currently no recommendations on a timeline for service providers to transition to the new framework.

He emphasized that TRAI's recommendation for a single authorization instead of multiple licenses aims to simplify service provisioning under the Telecommunications Act 2023.

"It is voluntary. They can continue to provide services under their existing licenses," Lahoti added.

Illicit market valued at ₹8 lakh cr in 5 industries

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE illicit market in 5 key Indian industries - FMCG (packaged goods), FMGC (personal and household care), alcohol, tobacco, and textiles & apparel - was valued at ₹7,97,726 crore in the financial year 2022-23, as per FICCI CASCADE'S latest study which was released on Wednesday. Textiles and apparel with an illicit market size of ₹4,03,915 crore in 2022-23 accounts for over 50% of the total illicit market

The illicit market for FMCG (packaged foods) has grown from ₹1,12,474 crore in 2011-12 to ₹2,23,875 crore in 2022-23, marking a rise of 99%, said the report. The estimates for illicit market of FMCG (personal and household care goods) grew from ₹43,010 crore in 2017-18 to ₹73,813 crore in 2022-23 (71.6%).

The illicit market of alcoholic beverages saw a rise of 153.5% between 2017-18 and 2022-23. In current price value terms, the illicit market reached ₹66,106 crore for 2022-23, after 48,134 crore in 2021-22.

For tobacco products, between 2018-19 and 2022-23, the illicit market grew by 17.7%, from ₹25,495 crore to ₹30,012 crore. The report said the illicit market in these five categories expanded faster in rural India, especially among the growing classes of middle- and lower-income groups.

Illicit mkt for FMCG rises 99%

Illicit market for FMCG (packaged foods) has grown from ₹1,12,474 cr in 2011-12 to ₹2,23,875 cr in 2022-23, a rise of 99%, report said. Estimates for illicit market of FMCG (personal and household care goods) grew from ₹43,010 cr in 2017-18 to ₹73,813 cr in 2022-23

Infy, EV maker Polestar tie up to set up tech hub in B'luru

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

INFOSYS on Wednesday announced a strategic collaboration with Swedish electric performance car brand Polestar. The IT company will establish a global technology hub for Polestar at its development center in Bengaluru.

This hub aims to deliver electric vehicle (EV) software development and validation across many domains including infotainment, Advanced Driver Assistance Systems (ADAS), and telematics.

Polestar will benefit from leveraging Infosys' strategic assets like engineering labs, design studio, and Infosys Living Labs to enhance innovation, the company said.

Maria Lexe, Head of Digital at Polestar, said, "Polestar is excited to partner with Infosys to establish a tech hub in India. Infosys has a successful background with similar operations, and we are confident in their ability to lead this tech hub in order to generate IT efficiencies and empower innovation." Headquartered in Gothenburg, Sweden, Polestar cars are available online in 27 markets globally across North America, Europe and Asia Pacific.

Sven Bauer, Head of Software at Polestar, said, "Polestar is starting a new chapter in the company's global setup with our partner Infosys in Bengaluru. We look forward to building automotive competence in the Polestar Tech Hub to support our growing vehicle portfolio and new model launches."

Semiconductor venture: Zoho CEO Vembu says application still pending

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

SAAS unicorn Zoho Corp's CEO and co-founder Sridhar Vembu on Wednesday said the company is not directly involved in the semiconductor venture and it is only an investor in Silectric Semiconductor Manufacturing, which is awaiting clearance from the government.

"Zoho has no expertise in the area (semiconductor). We know software, technology... We don't know about semiconductors, that's why we are only an investor and the application is still pending," he told TNIE. This clarification comes days after reports suggested Zoho's semiconductor venture will come up in Odisha. "The government is evaluating the proposals critically in terms of what technologies are brought in, who is providing those technologies, long-term prospects of those companies...these questions must be asked and I am glad the government is asking these questions. We are not yet sure that we will be among the selected approved applicants and only after that can we even comment on the location," he explained.

Once Silectric receives clearance it would build semiconductors for power electronics. Vembu's two classmates, and a couple of more people have been onboarded for this venture. Speaking about data centres, Vembu said they will cover every country and so far they have 18 data centres. Zoho, which has two data centres in India-Mumbai and Chennai, is also looking for additional locations, mostly rural locations closer to where its customers are. The Chennai-headquartered tech company on Wednesday announced its foray into the Open Network for Digital Commerce (ONDC) network.

Adani meets Bombardier chief to explore alliance

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

ADANI Group chairman Gautam Adani met aircraft manufacturing company Bombardier CEO Eric Martel on Tuesday and discussed partnership in aircraft services and the defence sector.

"Powering India's aviation growth! Had a great discussion with @Bombardier CEO Eric Martel on transformative partnerships in Aircraft Services, MRO and Defence. Together, we are harnessing synergies for a stronger, self-reliant India," Gautam Adani said in a post on X.

Adanis operate seven airports in the country, while Bombardier is a Canadian aircraft jet manufacturer. Adani Group has presence in the defence sector via a subsidiary Adani Defence & Aerospace.

The meeting between Adani and Bombardier chief comes amid India's effort to set up local maintenance, repair, and operation (MRO) facilities. Civil aviation minister Rammohan Naidu last month had said the Indian government has introduced new reforms to strengthen maintenance, repair, and overhaul (MRO) sector, including a simplified GST Structure and support measures designed to integrate domestic facilities with global value chains.

Zerodha's net profit in FY24 grows by 62% to ₹4,700 crore

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

AT a time when most new-age companies are struggling to turn profitable, stock broking platform Zerodha again stunned the market as it reported a staggering 62% rise in annual profit for the financial year 2023-24.

Zerodha's profit came in at 4,700 crore in the financial year 2023-24 as against ₹2,907 crore profit in FY23. The profits don't include the ₹1,000 crore of unrealised gain. The country's leading stock broker's revenue grew 21% to ₹8,320 crore as against ₹6,875 crore revenue in FY23.

"We continued our tremendous financial track record, and FY23/24 was a fabulous year in terms of both revenues and profitability. The profits don't consider the ₹1,000 crore of unrealised gain, which will show in our financials," said founder and CEO Nithin Kamath in a blog post.

The limited data highlights that Zerodha's operating margin, excluding the unrealised gain, may have come at about 57%. Kamath said Zerodha's customers hold over ₹5.66 lakh crore with them (in their demats) and are sitting on over ₹1 lakh crore of unrealised gains. The founder wrote about the risks the stock broking industry is facing. "...Many of the regulatory changes we were anticipating have come to pass. The True to Label circular, SEBI paper on index derivatives, STT going up, annual maintenance charges impacted due to increased BSDA limits, and hit to our partner/referral business."

INDIA'S PROBLEM OF LEFT

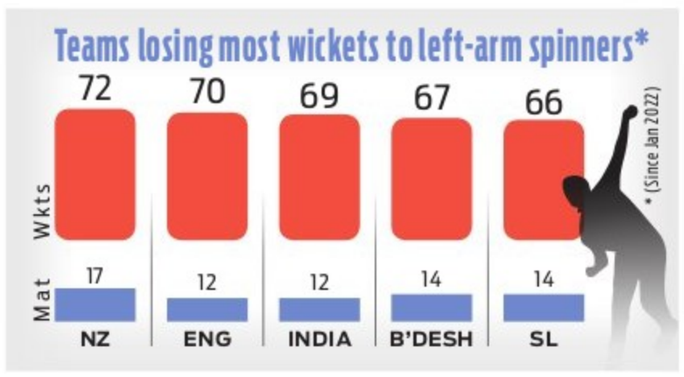
Bangladesh tweaker Islam may pose trouble if he gets in the playing XI for the Kanpur Test starting Friday

FIROZ MIRZA @ Chennai

INDIA didn't just win the first Test at Chennai against Bangladesh. In the process, they also stopped a long run of giving — sometimes gifting — wickets to left-arm spinners. Over the last five or so years in India, the likes of Lasith Embuldeniya and Praveen Jayawickrama (Sri Lanka), Jack Leach and Tom Hartley (England), Ajaz Patel (New Zealand) and Matthew Kuhnemann (Australia) have either played their part in famous wins, taken loads of wickets or been lone reasons to cheer in otherwise dull campaigns for visiting teams. The last time the hosts didn't concede a single wicket to a left-arm spinner was also to Bangladesh at Indore in 2019. Taijul Islam toiled unsuccessfully as he gave away 120 runs in 28 overs.

Since then, Islam has improved a lot. In India's last tour to Bangladesh, Islam probed finished with eight wickets across two Tests. The 32-year-old, who sat out the first Test, is expected to feature in the Kanpur match starting Friday. With the Green Park surface expected to be on the slower side unlike the Chepauk wicket, both teams may opt for a third spinner. For Rohit Sharma and Co, either local boy Kuldeep Yadav or Axar Patel may replace a pacer in the playing XI. Similarly, the visitors might go with Islam at the cost of a fast bowler. If he does, the hosts will have the sizable challenge of facing up to him because they have had a weakness against this particular bowling type (Patel, currently in Sri Lanka, will be a curious onlooker).

India batter Virat Kohli, who had a forgettable outing in Chennai, during a training session in Kanpur | PTI



Since January 2022, Indian batters have lost their wickets to the left-arm spinners a whopping 69 times in 12 Tests. They are third on the list with New Zealand (72 wickets in 17 matches) and England (70 wickets in 19 matches) looking most vulnerable against such bowlers and occupying the first and second spots respectively.

A close look into records of individual India batters against such bowlers doesn't paint a pretty picture. Skipper Rohit Sharma averages 39.66 and got out 6 times in 18 innings. Star batter Virat Kohli's records too are dismal in that period against left-arm spinners. He averages 35.40 in 17 innings and has lost his wickets five times to them. KL Rahul, who has made his comeback to the Test side in the ongoing series, has also struggled against such bowlers — an average of 28.33 from 9 innings and he got out thrice. Opener Shubman Gill's average is 39.66 in 18 innings and has been removed six times.

Wicketkeeper-batter Rishabh Pant, opener Yashasvi Jaiswal and all-rounder Ravindra Jadeja seem to be exceptions. In 10 innings, Pant, who played his first Test after more than two years in Chennai, averages 95.66 against the left-arm spinners. But the explosive batter was also sent back by them three times. Jaiswal's average is a staggering 109 in 10 innings while Jadeja averages 105.50 from 18 innings. Both of them got out twice to such tweakers.

Given the recent records of Indian batters against them, entry of a slow left-arm spinner in the opponents' ranks could well be a big sub-plot in the second Test. What makes the matter more interesting is the upcoming three-Test series against New Zealand, which begins next month. Patel, who already had a successful India tour three years ago wherein he claimed a record 10 wickets in an innings in Mumbai, will lead the spin attack that also has left-arm tweakers in the form of Mitchell Santner and Rachin Ravindra (batting all-rounder).

How Indian batters fare against Islam in Kanpur could well decide their fate going into their next assignment against the visiting Kiwis.

Shooter Arjun Babuta finished fourth in the men's 10m air rifle at Paris Games

Arjun's journey of self discovery post Paris heartbreak

ANMOL GURUNG @ Chennai

ARJUN Babuta is on a journey of self discovery at the moment. The pendulum has seemingly made a massive swing in his life. The shooter from Punjab had experienced pure agony not so long ago, having narrowly missed out on his life-long dream (an Olympic medal) during the Paris Games. It's been close to two months since that event unfolded and he's still dumbfounded, especially given that he had 'emptied his tank'.

The level of impact that result has had on him is notable. Having held the rifle for the first time since that outcome just a few days ago, he does not like the idea of shooting a 10m air rifle event for now. "What I have been able to process is that I gave my 100 per cent, my tanks were empty. I gave so much that I don't want to hold my rifle as of now. There are too many emotions at the moment. I'm either looking to shoot a crazy eight, nine hours a day or I don't want to do it at all," the 2022 Changwon World Cup gold winner said.

"So I'm still just trying to process everything and get used to this change. There's definitely a change in me after the Olympics and I think I just need to get used to this new self and try to learn more about myself," the 25-year-old added.

Given that he had invested all his energy going into the Games and given the harsh outcome of finishing fourth, his predicament is understandable. He's just trying to make sense of his recent past before devising concrete plans for the future. "The last three, four months have been crazy and we were involved in a lot of travelling and I just want to find peace time, alone time to process everything, assess everything and see where life is heading," he said.

Arjun might be struggling to obtain answers but he's also mindful of the effort that he has put in from his side. "But overall, I'm proud of the way I played. I missed a medal by a whisker but fourth is also a thing to be proud of. And somebody had to finish fourth and it was me," the 2023 Asian Championships silver medallist assessed. Despite being unable to infiltrate the bottom of the matter, he's not looking to force the issue and with the guidance of the people around him, he's looking to take things slow.

"I started shooting two days back and I'm training at the 50m range because I just don't want to do 10m at the moment. 50m is something I can explore and I'm working on it right now," Arjun, who is taking part in the All-Indian Railway Shooting meet in Jaipur, noted.

His outlook towards life and the sport might be evolving but his mantra remains the same. He's intent on enjoying the sport. "That day (Olympic final) doesn't define what kind of shooter I am. I have been good and I'm still good and there's much more to come in the future. I'll try to take a break after the World Cup final. Right now I just want to enjoy the process, the mantra that I have been following for the past few years. And that process helped me maintain my creativity."

Fortunately, Arjun, who is supported by Olympic Gold Quest, has the ideal support system - his parents, coaches, sports science team - to navigate this tricky phase. They have constantly lent their ears in order to help him. Arjun, on his part, is mindful that he needs to maintain a certain level of discipline to remain in the game. As he grapples to get a better understanding of his recent past, music is something that has appealed to his senses. "I'm trying to learn harmonium and I also bought a tabla. I played it in Gurudwara for three years before shooting. I'm trying to learn new things and also stay connected with shooting."

After the Railways meet, Arjun is set to take part in the upcoming ISSF World Cup Final, which is set to be held in New Delhi next month. With the never-ending backing of coach Deepali Deshpande, he's aiming for a stress-free experience then. "Deepali ma'am asked me to take a break from 10m and she told me 'if you don't want to do it (shoot 10m), don't do it'. After the World Cup final, I'll definitely take a break. Even right now, she asked me not to stress about the upcoming competition and just try and enjoy it. Recovery, especially the mental side, is much more important at the moment."

This current phase might be a new territory for Arjun but he has had his share of challenges in the past. He'll be hoping to get clarity as soon as possible and return stronger.

AICF announces ₹ 3.2 cr for Olympiad winners

AGENCIES @ New Delhi

THE All India Chess Federation announced a whopping ₹3.2 crore in rewards for the historic 45th Olympiad-winning Indian teams during a felicitation ceremony here on Wednesday. AICF president Nitin Narang made the announcement during the event.

Each player from the winning teams will receive ₹25 lakh, while the coaches of the men's and women's teams, Abhijeet Kunte and Srinath Narayanan, will be rewarded with ₹15 lakh each. Grandmaster Dibyendu Barua, head of the Indian delegation, will receive ₹10 lakh, and the assistant coaches will be rewarded ₹7.5 lakh. "The hunger for gold ended in Hungary, but the desire for success continues. In the open section we dominated and in women's section we owned it," AICF president Narang said during the felicitation. "Our players are sharp shooters on the chessboard. The seeds planted by Vishwanathan Anand have grown into a forest."

Indian open and women's chess team members who won gold medal at the Olympiad recently met Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Wednesday | PTI

AICF secretary general Dev A Patel said the historic twin gold medals will help in bringing a chess revolution in the country. "In 97 years of Chess Olympiad, we won gold in both categories. It's a historic achievement," Patel said. "This will give a new spark to chess enthusiasts. We will look to use this momentum to encourage next generation of chess players." India made history at the 45th Chess Olympiad in Budapest as both the men's and women's teams clinched their maiden gold medals, marking a monumental achievement in Indian chess. The men's team, featuring D Gukesh, Arjun Erigaisi, and R Praggnanandhaa, displayed dominance throughout, defeating Slovenia in the final round. Gukesh, the star performer, won 10 of 11 rounds, propelling India to the top with 21 out of a possible 22 points. The women's team, led by D Harika, Tania Sachdev, and R Vaishali, secured their gold by defeating Azerbaijan in a tense final. Prime Minister Narendra Modi earlier on Wednesday personally congratulated the champions.

NADA serves whereabouts failure notice to wrestler Vinesh

AGENCIES @ New Delhi

THE National Anti-Doping Agency (NADA) on Wednesday served a notice to wrestler Vinesh Phogat for whereabouts failure and sought an explanation within 14 days.

All the athletes registered with NADA's Registered Testing Pool (RTP), of which Vinesh is a part, are required to provide details about their availability for dope tests. If they fill the details and are found not available on that location at that given time, it is considered a whereabouts failure. The NADA, in its notice, conveyed to the wrestler-turned-politician that she had apparently committed a whereabouts failure as she was not available for a dope test on September 9 at her house in Sonepat. Vinesh had announced her retirement from the sport after the Paris heartbreak, where she made the final but was disqualified ahead of her gold-medal bout for being overweight. Vinesh and fellow wrestler Bajrang Punia joined the Congress party and she is contesting the upcoming Haryana election.

Days after tough Arsenal clash, Man City win in League Cup

MANCHESTER: Playing just two days after a feisty Premier League match against Arsenal, Manchester City fielded a heavily rotated team and still had too much for second-tier Watford in the English League Cup. City won 2-1 thanks to first-half goals by Jeremy Doku and Matheus Nunes at Etihad Stadium as the third round continued Tuesday.

Mbappe scoring streak continue in La Liga

AGENCIES @ Madrid

KYLIAN Mbappe extended his scoring streak with his sixth goal in five matches as Real Madrid defeated Alaves 3-2 to move closer to leader Barcelona in the Spanish league.

Mbappe's seventh goal since joining Madrid was a beauty, with the France forward starting a give-and-go with Jude Bellingham with a heal flick and then picking up the pass inside the area and using a nifty move to clear a defender before finding the net in the 40th minute at the Santiago Bernabeu Stadium. Mbappe asked to be substituted in the 80th because of a muscle ailment, according to Madrid coach Carlo Ancelotti, who said it was not serious. Lucas Vazquez and Rodrygo also scored for Madrid, which extended its unbeaten run in the league to 39 matches with 29 wins and 10 draws going back to last season. Alaves made a late charge by scoring with Carlos Benavídez in the 85th and Kike Garcia in the 86th but couldn't find the equalizer despite chances in the final minutes. "We played a great match for 80 minutes, but we suffered more than we should have in the end," Vazquez said. The victory moved Madrid within one point of league leader Barcelona, who will go for its seventh victory in a row to start the season when they host winless Getafe on Wednesday. Mbappe now has seven goals in nine matches with Madrid in all competitions.

IOA infighting puts its own election under the scanner

FLIPSIDE

INDRANEEL DAS

THE Indian Olympic Association's (IOA) emergency meeting, called by the president, PT Usha, on Thursday is expected to be volatile.

The one-point agenda – the appointment of the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) – is expected to be converted into a multi-point agenda. The 12 members of the Executive Committee apparently have written to Usha to include 14 more points that need to be discussed during the emergency EC meeting. The tussle of power between the IOA president and the EC members has reached its tipping point. The IOA president had issued show cause notices to five members of the EC after receiving complaints from an undisclosed person. The complainant had raised concerns about the eligibility of the five EC members, including its senior vice president, Ajay Patel, and treasurer, Sahdev Yadav. The IOA president has asked them to clarify whether they are in violation of sports code, especially when it comes to term and tenure. The allegations are that some of the EC members have already completed a maximum of 12 years (three four-year terms) in office in a National Sports Federation as stipulated in the sports code. Following sports code has been made mandatory through various directives of the sports ministry and courts.

If the IOA president has sent show cause notices for flouting sports code guidelines, then the EC members have questioned the entire selection procedure for the posts of Sportspersons of Merit (SOMs). The first point the EC members want to discuss (on Thursday) is "the issue of the selection process adopted for selecting Sportspersons of Outstanding Merit and their participation in the election process of the IOA for elected post... (dated: 10.12.2022)". Usha is one of the eight SOMs who were selected by the IOA's Athletes Commission. There are at least four SOMs in the EC (that has a total of 15 members): PT Usha (athletics), Yogeshwar Dutt (wrestling), Rohit Rajpal (tennis) and Dola Banerjee (archery). Dutt, Rajpal and Banerjee are EC members and signatory to the 14-point agenda list sent to the IOA president for Thursday's meeting. MM Somaya (hockey), Suma Shirur (shooting), Aparna Popat (badminton) and Akhil Kumar (boxing) are the other members. The letter written by one of the contestants to Rajeev Mehta, the then secretary of the IOA, had questioned the validity of the process that went into selecting the eight names. It also alleged, since the general body has ratified the names, whether their names can be incorporated in the electoral college or make them eligible to contest elections. Interestingly, it is understood that the general body did not raise any objection to the ratification of the SOMs names in 2022. Whether or not they are eligible is a different question. But going through the List of Nominated Candidates (2022 IOA election; Form 3 dated 29.11.2022) for the election reveal an interesting story. There were not too many contestants but those who won were more or less proposed and seconded by the same set of people.

For example, the president, an SOM, was proposed by all powerful chief minister of Assam and Badminton Association of India chief Himanta Biswa Sarma and seconded by M Somaya, an SOM. Ajay Patel was proposed by former union minister Arjun Munda and seconded by an SOM, Dutt. Name of Gagan Narang, the vice president, was proposed by former tainted Wrestling Federation of India president Brijbhushan Sharan Singh and an SOM, Usha. Sahdev Yadav's name was proposed by AITA president and former MP Anil Kumar Jain and seconded by Aparna Popat. Again Bhupinder Singh Bajwa, who completed his 12-year tenure in Wushu federation, was proposed by Amitabh Sharma and Dutt (SOM). Davis Cup captain Rajpal's name was proposed by Usha herself and Banerjee (both SOMs). Banerjee was proposed by Aparna and Narang, while that of Dutt was by Bijbhushan and Sahdev. The fight between the IOA president and the EC members is threatening the very existence of the IOA. The members are in fact questioning the very election through which they were elected.

Whatever the result of the meeting be on Thursday, one thing is sure. The very election through which they were elected is now under the scanner.

The Nilgiris enforces protection for Neelakurinji

Amidst the rare mass flowering of Neelakurinji in The Nilgiris, the forest division has implemented stringent measures to safeguard these delicate blooms. Visitor access has been severely restricted, particularly around Udhagamandalam (Ooty), to prevent any damage to the fragile ecosystem. Strict fines will be imposed on those caught trespassing into restricted zones. Neelakurinji, which blooms once every 12 years, draws significant interest from nature enthusiasts and tourists alike.

Thailand considers introducing a tourism tax

Thailand's new tourism minister, Sorawong Thienthong, is considering reintroducing the 300-baht tourism tax, as reported. This tax, equivalent to approximately ₹750, was previously approved but put on hold by the former administration. Initially proposed in 2021, the scheme includes a ₹767 fee for international travellers arriving by air, while those entering by sea or land would be charged ₹383. The concerns remain about its potential impact on visitor numbers and the overall industry.

A creative crusade

A SHARADHAA

LATELY, social media harassment has become a hot topic, prompting various celebrities to voice their concerns about the relentless negativity that permeates online spaces. Among those who have bravely taken a stand is hip-hop artiste, rapper and former Bigg Boss Kannada contestant Eshani. Through her powerful art, she is making a statement against the hate and bullying that many face in the digital realm.

Eshani has recently released a song, Asli Banna, a bold and heartfelt track that directly addresses the challenges of online abuse, particularly from anonymous accounts that often operate without accountability. The song is available on her YouTube channel and features collaborations with talented individuals, including producer Venkat VS and director Giri Gowda. The lyrics were co-written by Eshani and Martin, while the visuals were captured by cinematographer Keerthan Poojary, with music composed by DJ Lethal.

Reflecting on the inspiration behind Asali Banna, Eshani reveals that her experiences during her time on Bigg Boss deeply influenced her songwriting. "I poured my emotions into this track," she explains. "I've been subjected to trolls and hostility for no apparent reason, often by people who don't even know me. With this song, I wanted to ask why there's such a need to spread hate. It's a direct message to trolls: why should we remain silent?"

Despite her efforts to combat online harassment, Eshani faced challenges when she reported the abuse to cybercrime authorities. "Many trolls hide behind fake profiles, which makes it tough to pursue legal action," she says. "This song is my way of sharing my perspective and standing up against the negativity that can be so overwhelming."

The music video for Asali Banna was shot in a single day on Airport Road on a modest budget but packed with visual flair and emotional depth. Eshani hopes to inspire others to find their voices and stand up against hate through her platform. "I want people to know that they're not alone in this fight. Together, we can create a more supportive and positive online community."

Veteran theatre director Feisal Alkazi, son of Padma Bhushan awardee Ebrahim Alkazi, is bringing two contrasting plays to B'luru for the first time this weekend, offering a powerful blend of societal grit and personal family drama

POOJA DAS

A still from The Lower Depths

CHANGING SCENES

A still from Again

EVEN though Bengaluru is often celebrated as India's tech hub, known for its innovation and thriving startup culture, it is the city's vibrant theatre scene that truly showcases its diversity. From experimental performances to time-honoured classics, Bengaluru's stages are alive with diverse stories and voices. This weekend, the city's love for the dramatic arts takes centre stage once again as veteran theatre director Feisal Alkazi brings two contrasting productions – The Lower Depths, a Russian classic by Maxim Gorky and Again, a contemporary British play by Stephanie Jacob – offering two drastically different perspectives: a gritty portrayal of society's outcasts with The Lower Depths, and an intimate exploration of a family's unravelling with Again.

"We've been coming to the city for the last seven years and we always bring two productions that are different from each other. We like the challenge. It's also nice to perform for a different audience than Delhi's; Bengaluru now has a very rigorous theatre-literate audience," notes Alkazi.

A luminary in Indian theatre and son of Ebrahim Alkazi – a Padma Bhushan awardee and the former director of the National School of Drama – Feisal Alkazi is known for his diverse and socially relevant productions, with the Delhi-based Ruchika Theatre Group. "I chose The Lower Depths because it's a remarkable play. Gorky himself came from impoverished circumstances, and this play, with its focus on the lives of the marginalised, has a strong resonance with today's India," he adds. The play – first staged in 1902 – is set in a night shelter in Moscow, where a group of outcasts grapple with their lives on the fringes of society.

With a large cast of 16 characters, ranging in ages from 18 to 74, the play was a challenging piece to produce. "I don't believe in heavy makeup so I've cast people according to their ages. Creating a lived-in and relatable world set in a Russian night shelter, with so many characters was challenging," he acknowledges.

While The Lower Depths will take the audience through a pre-revolutionary Russian era of despair and poverty, Alkazi's second production, Again, will bring a deeply personal space of familial relationships. Written last year by British actor-playwright Stephanie Jacob, Again revolves around a fractured family. The father, who left his family years ago, returns unexpectedly to face his estranged wife and now-grown children. "It explores the idea of 'what if.' So many times in life, you feel you shouldn't have said something or wish you could take it back," says Feisal. "The play does exactly that – it resets in the middle. After 15-20 lines, we go back and run the scene again, but with a different interpretation."

This structure brings an emotional depth and complexity to the performance. "It's a challenge for the actors – to be crying one moment and laughing the next and to keep the audience engaged. There's comedy, but also serious moments. People will definitely talk about this play for at least three dinners," Feisal notes.

(The Lower Depths, and Again will be staged on September 27, and September 28, at 7.30pm, respectively, at the Ranga Shankara, JP Nagar)

Refined sugar is considered to be the villain of these times. Coconut sugar, monk fruit sugar, jaggery... which of these is a better alternative to white sugar?

Refined sugar is linked to various health issues like obesity, diabetes and tooth decay. Here is a breakdown of new-age alternatives.

- Coconut sugar has a much lower GI than refined sugar. It is rich in minerals like iron, zinc, potassium, and has a small amount of fibre.
- Monk fruit sugar has zero calories and carbs, suitable for diabetics, but is 150-200 times sweeter than refined sugar so use it sparingly.

ASK AN XPERT

- Jaggery is unrefined, natural sweetener from sugarcane or palm sap and is the most popular sugar alternative. It's rich in minerals like iron, potassium, and magnesium and has lower GI than refined sugar.
- Though these options are natural and nutrient-rich, they cannot be considered as health foods. Consume them in moderation or better still try to go sugarless. You will get used to it soon.

FITBIT

SETUBANDHA SARVANGASANA VARIATION HANDS SUPPORT

(BRIDGE POSE VARIATION HANDS SUPPORT)

This strengthening and energising posture is a variation of Setubandha Sarvangasana (Bridge Pose), but uses hand to support the hips to keep them stable. It is a rejuvenating backbend that improves spinal mobility, releases the hips flexors, strengthens the posterior chain and can help alleviate pain in the knee, lower and upper back. This pose is considered as a counter-pose to the Halasana (Plough Pose).

STEPS

- Start in Savasana.
- Keep your feet mat-width apart, arms away from the body, palms facing up.
- Breathe normally with awareness.
- Bring your feet together and arms by the side of your body with palms facing down and relax.
- Bend your knees, soles touching the mat and hip-width apart. Make sure your knees are slightly apart but in line with your ankles.
- Bring your chin closer to your chest without lifting your head.
- Inhale, lift your hips and chest as high as possible.
- Ensure your heels are pressing into the mat engaging your calves, hamstrings, gluteal muscles and quadriceps. Exhale.
- Inhale, lift your hands and position them on your back.
- Exhale and bring awareness to the flow of prana, ensuring the feet are parallel. Avoid allowing knees to bow outward. Remain in this posture for about 5-6 breaths.
- Breathe and slowly settle on the floor.
- Perform Pawanmuktasana as a counterpose.
- Practise the second round, taking the posture deeper.

LIMITATIONS

- Students with neck pain, injury or surgery, have risk of osteoporosis in the cervical spine can use a blanket under the shoulders to reduce neck flexion. If injuries are severe, avoid this pose.
- If students lack strength and balance at their arms, elbows and wrists, can use a block, blanket, bolsters or even aerial.
- Students with a weak core and upper arms can avoid holding the pose for a long duration in the starting phase.
- Pregnant women must avoid. Seniors can do it slowly with the guidance of a yoga teacher.

BENEFITS

- Stretches the hip flexors, abdominal muscles, obliques, chest, intercostals and shoulders.
- Lengthens your torso, particularly psoas muscles.
- Improves spinal flexibility, particularly targeting the thoracic and lumbar regions.
- Aids in flexibility and mobility in the elbows, wrists joints, and fingers.
- Helps move smoothly to more challenging backbend poses.
- Improves lungs efficiency and brings better awareness and focus.
- Coordinates overall body-mind balance with breathing process.
- Improves posture, especially those with kyphosis.
- Stimulates the lungs, thyroid, parathyroid glands and engages the core and abdominal muscles.
- Stimulates the abdominal organs and improves breathing, digestion and energy levels.
- Stimulates Muladhara, Visuddha and Anahata Chakras and various organs, and glands.
- Benefits those with asthma or any allergy related to the lungs.
- Relaxing and cooling practice for athletes.

LAUGHTER THERAPY EASES DRY EYES

A new study reveals that laughter exercises can be just as effective as artificial tears in alleviating symptoms of dry eye disease. Experts explain how laughter reduces stress, boosts tear production, and improves overall eye health

VENNAPUSALA RAMYA

WE have all heard people going 'Ho, Ho, Ha, Ha, Ha' in parks, and when we follow the sounds, we often discover it's part of a laughter exercise. While these exercises are widely associated with health benefits, a study published in the British Medical Journal (BMJ) has taken it a step further, revealing that laughter exercises can be just as effective as standard treatments like hyaluronic acid drops in alleviating the symptoms of dry eye disease. Let's dive deeper into the findings with insights from experts.

Dry eye, or keratoconjunctivitis sicca, is a common condition where the eyes either don't produce enough tears or the tears don't function properly. Dr Sushma Reddy Katukuri, consultant in pediatric ophthalmology, explains that while dry eyes are more common with age, especially in postmenopausal women, they can also be linked to systemic conditions such as rheumatoid arthritis, lupus, Sjögren's syndrome, and thyroid disorders. Additional contributors include eyelid diseases, long-term contact lens use, and post-refractive eye surgery. In recent years, prolonged screen exposure has become another significant factor.

Dr Deepti Mehta, consultant ophthalmologist, elaborates on the study, stating, "The goal was to see if laughter exercises could match the effectiveness of artificial tears in treating symptomatic dry eye disease (DED). The randomised controlled trial involved 299 participants aged 18 to 45, all diagnosed with DED. These participants were split into two groups – one performed laughter exercises while the other used artificial tears. Both treatments were administered four times daily over eight weeks. Primary outcomes were measured using the Ocular Surface Disease Index (OSDI) scores, with secondary outcomes, including tear film stability (non-invasive TBUT), corneal staining, and assessments of mental health and quality of life."

Dr Mehta further explained that participants in the laughter group engaged in specific vocalisations and facial movements to stimulate laughter, with adherence monitored through a custom face-recognition app. At the end of 12 weeks, both groups showed significant improvement in symptoms, but the laughter group saw greater gains in OSDI scores and tear film stability.

How does laughter help soothe dry eyes?

Laughter has unique physiological effects on both the mind and body, which can help alleviate dry eye symptoms, says Dr Mehta. "Laughter is well-known for reducing stress and promoting positive emotions, both of which are linked to worsening DED symptoms. Stress – especially from anxiety and depression – often exacerbates physical discomfort, including dry eye. By lowering stress levels, laughter may reduce inflammation and boost tear production, offering relief. It also stimulates the lacrimal glands, improving tear film stability and reducing dryness. Additionally, laughter relaxes muscles, contributing to overall eye comfort," she adds, further stating that its mental health benefits can mitigate the severity of depression, which is often associated with chronic DED."

Limitations

The study did have its limitations. Dr Mehta notes that it couldn't be double-blinded since there's no placebo equivalent for laughter exercises, which may have influenced the results. "Moreover, laughter therapy required more time and effort compared to the convenience of using eye drops, making it less appealing for some. While short-term outcomes were promising, the long-term effects remain unclear, and the exact biological mechanisms behind laughter's impact on DED are not fully understood. Additionally, the study only included participants with mild to moderate DED, limiting its applicability to those with more severe cases."

New 50-bed hospice for cancer patients launched

Bangalore Baptist Hospital has announced the opening of a 50-bed hospice in Devanahalli to support terminally-ill cancer patients. The hospice, a first of its kind in the region, will cater to patients from districts, including Bengaluru Rural, Chikkaballapura, Kolar, Tumakuru, and Ramanagara. Supported by the Kurian Foundation, the facility offers affordable care with a focus on pain relief, emotional support, and improving the quality of life. KH Muniyappa, Minister for Food & Civil Supplies and Minister for Consumer Affairs, Government of Karnataka was present at the ceremony.

Hospital launches 3D mural campaign for World Heart Day

Manipal Hospital has launched a series of striking 3D mural artworks across Bengaluru, to raise awareness about World Heart Day. Starting this week, over 20 key locations will display murals, featuring a red heart bound by chains, symbolising the fight against unhealthy habits like smoking and alcohol addiction. The murals, crafted by artists Baadal Nanjundaswamy and Mukesh Kumar, aim to inspire people to 'unchain' from harmful lifestyles for better heart health. Collaborating with Bengaluru Traffic Police and BMRCL, the initiative merges art with advocacy, encouraging a public conversation around health and well-being.

GURURAJ KULKARNI TEAMS UP WITH LAAPATAA LADIES DIALOGUE COACH SONU ANAND

The director and producer aims for a pan-Indian film with his next outing—a thriller, that will bring together writers from various regions

Kiran Rao Sonu Anand

Gururaj Kulkarni

A SHARADHAA

GURURAJ Kulkarni, (Nadagoud) the director behind Amruth Apartments, The Last Bus, and The Judgement, is gearing up for his next venture, which he confirms to be a pure thriller with an emotional depth. Following the critical acclaim he received for The Judgement, Gururaj is eager to connect with audiences to understand their cinematic preferences. "Post-The Judgement, I wanted to reach out to people and learn what they're interested in watching. I conducted polls and talked to people on the streets, and they ultimately voted for a thriller," he explains. He aims to create a film that connects widely, drawing comparisons to the Bon series.

In an interesting twist, Gururaj plans to develop this untitled project with a pan-Indian appeal, seeking to incorporate talents from various regions at its ground level. He has written the story and screenplay and is actively bringing together a diverse team of writers, including Sonu Anand, the dialogue coach for Laapataa Ladies directed by Kiran Rao. The film was recently selected as India's official entry for the 97th Academy Awards. "We talk about pan-India stories written by Kannada writers, so I decided to consider a narrative that applies across regions. Sonu Anand can bring his experience from his hometown to the table," reveals Gururaj.

He adds, "I was introduced to Sonu through a common friend. He's young, and I thought he would provide a fresh perspective." Currently, the film is in the writing process, and Gururaj is focusing on the dialogues, leveraging Sonu's expertise in Hindi, Marathi, and Bhojpuri."

Gururaj also intends to write dialogues for the Kannada version, potentially collaborating with seasoned writers, and is looking for writers from the Tamil, Telugu, and Malayalam industries. "The screenplay is ready, and I've discussed it at length with Sonu, who is preparing the first draft. He was recently in Bengaluru and did a short film in Kannada during his brief stay. He has shown interest in a long-term collaboration," he notes.

As the casting process progresses, Gururaj, who is also producing the film under his banner, G9 Communication Media and Entertainment is keen to select actors who can appeal to a wide audience across languages. "An announcement regarding the cast and technical crew will be made soon. Right now, we are just focusing on the groundwork."

Gopilola, a film on organic farming to release in October

A still from the film

CE FEATURES

GOPILOLA, which aims to blend themes of organic farming with romance and action, is set to hit theatres on October 4. Directed by R Ravindra and produced by R Sanath Kumar, this film introduces debutant Manjunath Arasu in the lead role.

Anticipation for Gopilola soared during its trailer launch which was attended by prominent people from the Kannada industry including veteran filmmaker SV Rajendra Singh Babu who led the event. He was joined by actors and filmmakers like Doddanna, Joe Simon, K Manju, MG Ramamurthy, Srinagar Kitty, and PC Shekhar.

With a keen focus on organic farming, Gopilola aims to spark meaningful conversations while entertaining its audience. As director R Ravindra stated, "Gopilola is not just about agriculture; it's a love story with a significant message."

Producer Sanath Kumar expressed his connection to the project: "As someone from a farming family, it brings me immense joy to tell a story related to organic farming. I truly believe the audience will appreciate what we have created."

For Manjunath Arasu, who is stepping into the lead role, Gopilola marks a proud moment in his career. "It's my first film, and I'm excited about the work we have done. The film has everything—action, suspense, love, and humour," he shared enthusiastically. The film features a soundtrack by Mithun Ashokan.

I'm setting my own pace and leading by example: Raadya

CE FEATURES

WITH Gurutej Shetty's Ronny, featuring Kiran Raj, entering its second week in theatres, actor Raadya, who plays the female lead, is thrilled by the audience's enthusiastic response. "Initially, I was nervous because my character brings both positive and negative shades. But surprisingly, people have liked it, and the feedback I have been receiving on social media is overwhelming," she shares.

At just three films into her career, Raadya is eager to carve her niche in the industry. While she appreciates the industry's recognition of her hard work, she points out a troubling trend: "The industry voices support for choosing Kannada actors, yet it often remains just a voice. Despite the wealth of talent here, many filmmakers still prefer actors from other states, with only a few exceptions." This reality leaves her puzzled. "I've expressed my concerns during various interactions. I don't know the formula behind it, but I hope it changes," asserts Raadya, as she explores opportunities with various filmmakers.

She acknowledges that directors like Rakhit Shetty and Rishab Shetty favour female actors from Karnataka, yet the trend of bringing in talent from other languages persists. "There's so much talent here, and it's disappointing. Even though I have opportunities to expand into Tamil and Telugu films, I'm prioritising Kannada and seeking more projects here. I'm actively reaching out to directors and keeping my fingers crossed," she says with determination.

Raadya is also keen on collaborating with established production houses. "I am open to working with new production houses, but many start strong and then struggle without proper support. Ultimately, that can waste time and energy. My focus is on career growth, not just making money. That's why I'm selective about the projects I take on. I'm looking for that big break." She concludes with a resolute tone: "My surroundings tell me not to rush. I'm setting my own pace and leading by example."

John Ortiz joins Bob Odenkirk in Nobody 2

CE FEATURES

ACTOR John Ortiz, who was recently seen on Apple TV's comedy crime drama Bad Monkey, is the latest to join the cast of Nobody 2. The film is a sequel to the 2021 hit of the same name, starring Bob Odenkirk and directed by Ilya Naishuller.

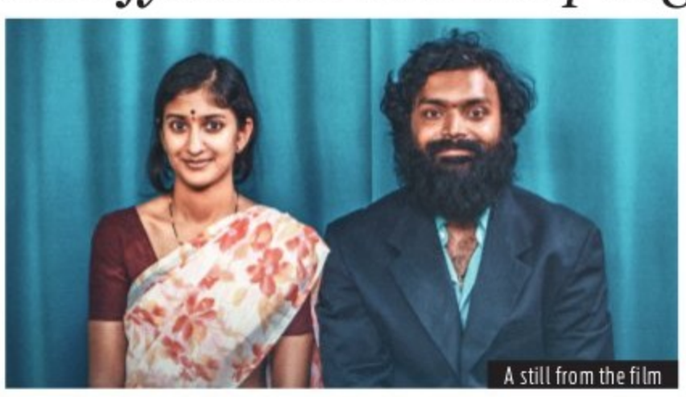
Timo Tjahjanto, known for films like May the Devil Take You and segments of V/H/S/94, is directing the film based on a screenplay by Derek Kolstad (Nobody), Aaron Rabin, Odenkirk, and Umair Aleem (Kate). The film is currently in production in Winnipeg. Apart from Bob Odenkirk and John Ortiz, Nobody 2 also stars Connie Nielsen, Sharon Stone, Mckenna Grace, Christopher Lloyd and Colin Hanks. Kelly McCormick and David Leitch of 87North will come back to produce the film alongside Odenkirk and Marc Provissiero of Odenkirk Provissiero Entertainment and Braden Aftergood of Eighty Two Films.

The makers are yet to reveal plot details for the film. In the 2021 original, Odenkirk plays Hutch Mansell, an unassuming suburban dad with a secretive past as a deadly government assassin. When a home invasion disrupts his life, Hutch's buried rage and expertise resurface, leading him into a brutal showdown with a drug lord from Russia.

Ranga makes directorial debut with social satirical drama Ravana Rajyadalli Navadampthigalu

CE FEATURES

RANGA'S directorial debut Ravana Rajyadalli Navadampathigalu is a social satirical drama that offers a glimpse into the lives of a newlywed couple and tackles societal expectations along with the challenges that characterise middle-class life in a bustling city. The film, which has wrapped up shooting, stars Nidhi Hegde and Arun Surya in lead roles. The film showcases not just their romantic journey but also their grappling with the often absurd realities of modern life.



A still from the film

With a blend of humor and poignancy, the story reflects universal themes of love, ambition, and the search for identity in a rapidly changing society. Produced by Green Chillies Studios and Dhiraj MV Films, the film features Shankar Guru, the director of Badava Rascal, who joins forces with Dhiraj MV and Varuna Gururaj to bring this unique story to life. The music and sound design are by Abhinandan Kashyap, while cinematography is handled by Veeresh NTA, who captures the essence of Bengaluru through his lens.

As the release date approaches, the film team is actively seeking a presenter to enhance the film's visibility. This strategic move is essential for ensuring that Ravana Rajyadalli Navadampathigalu reaches its intended audience. Kannadafilmyclub, a renowned film community known for its strong connections with filmmakers, has stepped in as a branding partner to support this effort.
